

ALIBI FIGHT ON PERGOLA CASE OPENS

Mother of Howard Royston Swears He Was at Home During Hours Preceding Participation in Robbery

Defendant Is Over Six Feet Tall and Oakland Attorney Says Hold-up Man Was Much Shorter in Stature

That her son, Howard L. Royston, on trial for alleged participation in the sensational robbery of the Pergola Cafe on the night of January 13, was at home during the hours of the robbery, was the declaration today of Mrs. Hannah Royston, mother of the defendant, who was called as a witness in the trial.

Mrs. Royston said that her son and a man named George Patullo lived with her at Sacramento. On the Saturday in question he went down town during the afternoon, returning to his home for dinner at 5 o'clock. At 7 o'clock he again left and returned with his friend at 1:30 in the morning. Mrs. Royston said that they brought the Sunday papers home with them and the three had something to eat. About 3 o'clock she retired and the boys took the papers to their room with them. She heard them talking together for some time after she had gone to bed, she said.

COULD NOT HAVE RETURNED IN TIME.

While the robbery did not occur during these exact hours it would have been impossible, according to the defense, for Royston to have participated in the robbery and to have returned to Sacramento by 1:30, which would have left but an hour for the trip.

W. W. Laidley, Oakland attorney, took the stand for the defense. He said he had been at the Pergola during the robbery. He described the robbers and said that the tallest of the men was not six feet in height. Royston is six feet two inches tall.

Laidley said he had gone to the county jail at the request of J. J. Collier and Joe Soares, deputy sheriffs, in an attempt to identify Royston, but that he was sure that the prisoner was not one of the robbers.

Yesterday Mrs. Royston talked about her boy. It was brief, but her sentences were vivid with mother love. She is proud of her son, who stands over six feet tall and is heavy in proportion to his height.

ONLY ONE WHO CAN SO TESTIFY.

"My boy did not do that. He would not," declared Mrs. Royston. "He was at home with me. He was there all night. I am not the only one who will testify to this fact."

"Howard's father died when he was a lad of 10 and I have known him and his brother ever since then. Both are good boys. They bring me their money regularly; they are quiet and steady in their habits, and I have never had any trouble with them. A mother knows her son. She may try to deceive others and to defend her boy, but in this case it is not necessary. His life speaks for him."

The prosecution concluded its case late yesterday, after having called several who were guests at the Pergola cafe. These included Harry W. Nason, Harold Broderick and C. A. Spaulding. All three identified Royston as the leader of the bandits during the hold-up. Al stated that he was masked, only a small portion of his face, around his eyes, showing. The identification was based upon his walk and upon that portion of the face visible at the time of the hold-up, they declared.

Former Premier De Freycinet Dies

PARIS, May 15.—(By Associated Press.)—Former Premier De Freycinet is dead. The former premier, who was 84 years old, had been in poor health for some time. He and former premier Clemenceau were old-time friends, and it was recalled today that one of the first visits the "Tiger" paid on his return from the United States in January was to De Freycinet, with whom he discussed his American trip and the reparations question. The aged De Freycinet became somewhat excited, and after the visit of Clemenceau, De Freycinet's physician forbade other visitors. In February, however, he was so improved that he was able to visit the French academy and see Premier Poincare.

Man Is Accused of Hanging Wife at Cliff

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 15.—(United Press.)—Charged with hanging his wife over a cliff at Marysville, Tenn., 20 miles northwest of here, Isaac Irwin, 55, was lodged in the county jail here today.

The woman's body was found floating in a river, around a neck, which had been made fast to a bush at the edge of the cliff, according to officers who brought Irwin to Knoxville.

Irwin denied the charge today, saying his wife had hanged herself after several previous futile attempts.

Mother Gives Alibi for Son

MRS. HANNAH ROYSTON, who today assured a Superior Court jury that her son, Howard L. Royston, was at home at the time that the Pergola Inn robbery, of which he is accused, took place.

DEPORTED IRISH TO BE RETURNED

Members of British Cabinet Face Severe Penalties Under Law of 1870

LONDON, May 15.—(By the Associated Press.)—Reports that Prime Minister Bonar Law is returning to London from Switzerland today gave rise to the suggestion that he has curtailed his holiday in consequence of the position in which the government finds itself in regard to the Art O'Brien habeas corpus proceedings.

As the result of the House of Lords decision in the case of Art O'Brien, the British government is requesting the Irish Free State government to return to England all the prisoners deported to Ireland. Home Secretary Bridgeman announced in the House of Commons today.

According to the opposition politicians and press the situation is extremely serious, and they treat it much like a ministerial crisis. The cabinet met last night. The ministers seem to have been particularly concerned with measures to protect the government from the penalties involved in a breach of the habeas corpus act of 1870, which provides that no resident of England may be sent as a prisoner to any place beyond the seas, including Ireland. It also declares that persons responsible for the detention of a prisoner in violation of the act may incur penalties including confiscation of lands and

It has been supposed that the government would introduce an indemnity bill to protect the officials responsible for the March deportations. It is now understood that the government has decided to defer introduction of the bill.

Political writers in the opposition press say that the government will be sternly called to account for the delinquencies of Secretary Bridgeman, Attorney General Sir Douglas Hogg and Viscount Novar, the secretary for Scotland, in allowing the prisoners to be sent to Ireland. There is an insistent demand for the resignation of these officials. It is said that Secretary Bridgeman has been offered to step down but that his colleagues refuse to consider his retirement.

$100,000 Swindler Sought in L. A.

LOS ANGELES, May 15.—(By United Press.)—Police were checking up the trail of J. M. Clark, asserted international swindler, today, following his arrest here on charges of victimizing scores of investors in this country and Canada by selling illegal land contracts in the Peace river district of Canada.

Clark, who has been made a wanted man, is said to have netted over $100,000 by his swindling operations in Duluth and Superior, Wis.; Bellingham, Wash.; San Francisco, New Westminster, B. C.; Kansas City, Spokane and Los Angeles.

L. A. POLICE ARREST 600 RADICALS

Men Involved in Shipping Strike at San Pedro Are Put in Jail: Officials to Build Stockade for Them

Harbor Congestion Is Great: Ships Tied Up for Lack of Sufficient Longshoremen to Handle Many Cargoes

LOS ANGELES, May 15.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Ku Klux Klan entered the fray at the harbor today when the "San Pedro division, invisible empire, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan," sent a letter to the Captain of Harbor Police Plummer and 1000 newspapermen stating that 1000 Klan members in the harbor district would not tolerate infringement upon the constitution. The letter warned foreigners against agitation.

LOS ANGELES, May 15.—(By the United Press.)—A total of 600 radicals involved in the harbor shipping strike were under arrest and lodged in various city jails today, according to a statement given out at police headquarters.

Among those under arrest are thirty-five men said to be the leaders of the strike movement. A third of the men arrested carried I. W. W. cards, police said, and many of the others are believed to have cards which they did not carry in their clothes at the time of the arrest.

ARRESTS FOLLOWED IGNORING ORDER.

The arrests were ordered after the radicals had ignored Captain of Police Plummer's orders against street meetings and demonstrations against the strikebreakers.

Radicals have been gathering at San Pedro for the past month in order to force a successful conclusion of the strike. Police allege documents were intercepted showing that I. W. W. from all over the country were ordered to "drift" to San Pedro, where it was planned to make a big drive against the California criminal syndicalism law.

Out in Griffith Park, near the golf links, a huge barbed wire stockade, with temporary shackles, is being rushed to completion on orders of Mayor Cress and Chief Oakes. It will be used to house the "radicals" as soon as completed. Additional police have been rushed to the harbor district, where radicals and saboteurs are feared.

"Congestion at the harbor is so great that it will take several weeks' work to clean it up, it is said. More than 100 ships of various kinds are lying idle. Only 150 longshoremen are working.

Leaders among those arrested yesterday's raid will probably be charged with criminal syndicalism, police said, while the majority will be brought into court on vagrancy charges. As fast as the "vagrants" are convicted they will be placed in the stockade, it is said.

The radicals are demanding the revocation of the criminal syndicalism law, abolition of the central hiring hall, by employers, and release of all radicals now in California jails and penitentiaries.

"SHOW DOWN" DEMANDED BY UPTON SINGULAR.

PASADENA, May 15.—The Los Angeles branch of the American Civil Liberties Union has accepted the challenge of the city and chief of police of Los Angeles, and announced here this noon through Upton Singular that a show down will be held this afternoon and evening, both in Los Angeles and at San Pedro.

Willard, Firpo Sign Match For July 7

NEW YORK, May 15.—Luis Firpo, of the Argentine, and Jess Willard, former world's heavyweight champion, today signed articles to box for Tex Rickard in a match to be held in the vicinity of New York not later than July 1. The winner of this contest will be matched against Jack Dempsey for the world's title.

Willard will leave tonight for Los Angeles to visit his family and will return to New York in several weeks, to begin training for the match. Firpo, who has several other bouts in view, will resume training tomorrow. He expects to fight Joe White, of New York, in Havana June 3, and may box in Mexico City about June 22.

French Prepare to Fight, Turks Say

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 15.—The Turkish officials claim France is concentrating military airplanes at Alexandretta and Aleppo in northern Syria, said a despatch from Ankara today. According to the Turks, the French are erecting barbed wire and making other preparations for warfare. Turkey is demanding evacuation of Syrian soil for which the French hold a mandate, but the Turks deny they have concentrated any troops in that region as claimed by the French.

Tornado Death List Increased To 21, 200 Hurt

Night of Horror Is Passed in Stricken Town: $500,000 Damage Estimated.

COLORADO, Tex., May 15.—(By the Associated Press.)—The death list was increased to 21 today by the finding of four additional victims of the tornado which swept Mitchell county yesterday. The list of injured contains about 200 names, a large majority of them Mexicans. Property loss will probably reach $500,000, according to latest estimates. Some of the injured probably will die. Three hundred persons are homeless, having lost everything they had.

By RENEY M. COX, United Press Staff Correspondent.

COLORADO, Tex., May 15.—With a known death toll of nineteen and with seventy-eight seriously injured, including a score of little children, this stricken little town passed a night of horror.

A cyclone which swept south and east of here yesterday killed the local sanitation with injured and dying until it was necessary to make temporary hospitals out of the Baptist and Methodist churches and all through the night, in these scenes of death, Colorado's people worked to save their neighbors.

Fifty-one of the most seriously injured are being cared for at the Baptist church. At least ten of these may die.

STRICKEN MOTHER PROVES HEROINE.

The story of a mother's heroic rescue of her child was brought here from the devastated region. Mrs. Nellie Hanbury, though gravely injured and stricken by the knowledge that her husband was dying nearby, crawled on her hands and knees a hundred yards against a driving wind and rain, to find her baby buried in the mud at the edge of a creek. Although hurled through the air by the swift winds, the child was unharmed. Another child of the Hanburys, Louise, 6, is lying at the point of death, with a severe wound in her head.

Sixteen-month-old Louise Shelton, her leg broken in three places, was one of the most pitiful of the survivors. All through the painful hours, the child cried in her mother's arms. Mrs. S. W. Shelton, who had been swept to death by the storm, The girl's father is internally injured and physicians said he probably would die. Her three brothers and sisters lie swathed in bandages on a cot beside her.

RELIEF AID RUSHED TO STRICKEN AREA.

COLORADO CITY, Tex., May 15.—(By Associated Press.)—A special train from Hot Springs brought doctors, nurses and medical supplies to aid the tornado victims here. Others came from Snyder and Sweetwater.

All the deaths were in more or less isolated places on farms. Due to the distance between farms and demoralization of wire communication it was expected here that there would be many hours before the entire district could be reached from the city.

Citizens of towns near the storm-swept area rushed first aid, provisions and relief supplies for the victims. At least fifty houses were reported destroyed. Damage to crops could not be estimated.

Heavy rain and hail made the roads soft and relief workers found trouble visiting the demolished farm houses.

This city has a population of approximately 2600. The country hit by the storm is mostly prairie land, dotted with farms.

Governor Vetoes One Highway Measure

SACRAMENTO, May 15.—(By International News Service.)—Governor Richardson today vetoed a highway bill providing for the construction of a road between Willows and Westport, stating that the measure was one of the "pork barrel" type.

The following measures were signed by the governor:

A. B. 137, by Brown, which provides for the laying out of camps on state lands.

A. B. 210, by Morris, allows the motor vehicle division to destroy old registration records.

A. B. 375, by Baker, amends the teachers' retirement act of 1913.

A. B. 115, by Reinhold, permits municipal corporations to sell, lease or otherwise transfer the control or operation of any municipal water works to any municipal water district.

Other Man, Husband Charges in Court

When he confronted his wife, Florence Garrett and the "other man" whom he did not name, and asked the man what he was going to do for Mrs. Garrett, in view of their relations, the third person on the domestic triangle gave the wife $45 with which to pay her railroad fare to an Eastern city. Richard Garrett alleges in a divorce complaint filed in the Superior court today.

Garrett says as he lay in bed on the Saturday night preceding Easter Sunday he heard his wife make an appointment with the man in question. He says she then left the house and remained away all night.

HOT SPRINGS, ARK., IS SWEEPED BY CLOUDBURST AND FIRE; 17 KILLED

Night of Terror Succeeds Fall of Water and Sweep of Flame; Property Loss Reported Heavy

CITY CUT OFF BY RAILROAD

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 15.—(By United Press.)—Seventeen are known dead and an undetermined number, estimated at between fifty and one hundred, are missing in the storm-swept region around Hot Springs, Ark., according to information received at headquarters of the Missouri Pacific railroad here. Property loss by fire and flood is estimated at more than $1,500,000. A relief expedition was despatched from here today.

800 Autos Are Storm Wrecked In Deluged Area

BENTON, Ark., May 15.—Marooned on a Rock Island train three miles from Hot Springs when the flood swept through that city, J. W. Arnold, local lumberman, made his way into the city on foot.

On his return, he declared that the last information he could obtain confirmed earlier reports that seventeen persons had been caught in the first rush of waters and were drowned.

"The flood came without warning," Arnold said. "There was a cloudburst and, a few minutes after the rain a wall of water from the mountains swept through Central avenue. The force of the torrent was so great that, when it struck the brick wall of a three-story building, it tore through the walls and the entire building collapsed."

Two automobiles, he said, were picked up by the flood and swirled through the display windows of a S. and S. store. Wrecked, they were left inside the store by the waters, he said.

More than half of the automobiles in Hot Springs, he said, were parked on the downtown streets when the storm came and virtually every one of these was wrecked or carried away by the flood. He estimated that at least 800 automobiles were wrecked.

As the terror of the flood began to pass, fire, caused by lightning, burst from the Grand Rapids Furniture company. The fire-fighting equipment battled in the mud and water against flames, but with little success, and the blaze ran its way into the main business buildings.

The flames flickered on the water in the darkness of the night, casting weird shadows and adding to the fear of women and children who covered in their homes. Wealthy guests from Eastern cities, the vanguard of the annual influx of tourists, remained in their rooms in fear of the fury of the elements.

$750,000 HOTEL TOTALLY DESTROYED.

The fire spread to the Dixie cafe and the Oliver Fane Grocery company, and then ate its way up the walls of the Markette hotel. The hotel, a $750,000 structure, was totally destroyed.

The electric light plant then went out of commission, adding further to the confusion of the night. The flames spread, taking in the American Express company and the Commercial store.

The steady downpour of rain which continued through the night finally conquered the flames, and shortly before daybreak the army of rescue workers, headed by army and navy staffs and police officials, began the task of saving the injured and caring for victims who are homeless.

At least seventeen persons are missing. First reports of the rescue workers said that as many as thirty railroad companies began rebuilding the damage caused to their lines by the wind and flood. Wrecking crews were scattered throughout the storm-swept area, while all train service was at a standstill.

WIRE SERVICE CUT OFF BY STORM.

Telephone and telegraph wires ripped away by the tornado at 7 o'clock last night were still badly paralyzed. The Western Union was the first to establish communication with the stricken district and on this one thin strand of wire, reaching as far as Little Rock, the first details of the disaster were sent.

Collapsed Bridges Turn Back Suctors

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 15.—(By International News Service.)—Efforts to communicate with Hot Springs, Ark., were hampered today by collapsed bridges.

Harding to Keep Oakland in Mind

THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE received a message from George B. Christian, secretary to President Harding, stating that the president had received the invitation to visit Oakland during his western tour, and would keep it in mind.

$160,000 CASH PAID IN PURCHASE OF BERKELEY INN

Real Estate Transaction Has Inception In Tribune

Berkeley Inn, one of the largest and best known hotels in the University city, located at the North-east corner of Telegraph Avenue and Eleventh Street, Berkeley, was sold this week by H. C. Peabody to Eberley of Sausalito. The price was not announced, but is reported to approximate $160,000 cash.

John P. Holland, Oakland real estate dealer represented both parties to the transaction.

It is understood that the purchaser will hold the property as a permanent investment.

Berkeley Inn is a solid brick structure of probably 90 rooms. It has a frontage of 110 feet on Harte street and 80 feet on Telegraph Avenue. It lies in the very center of the biggest development in Berkeley.

This transaction had the usual beginning in a Classified Advertisement in the Realty columns of the OAKLAND TRIBUNE. It is very impressive to consider the influence exerted by a few lines of type in the affairs of men and the progress and prosperity of American communities. The advertising in question appeared in the last days of March. A transaction of this size naturally requires time to complete.

Victim of Stroke Making Recovery

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—George F. Lockard, living at 75 Rin Vista Avenue, who suffered a stroke and fell down steps in the Lick building, 55 Montgomery street, San Francisco, yesterday, regained consciousness during the night and is expected to recover. It was announced that he likely will be able to go home tomorrow or Thursday.

CLUB TO MEET

ALAMEDA, May 15.—A social afternoon is to be enjoyed by the members of the Alameda Women's Improvement club tomorrow afternoon at the clubrooms of the organization in the Washington Hall, Ninth street and Santa Clara Avenue. According to an announcement made today by Mrs. W. A. Murphy, president.

Aerial Pullman Would Use City Rail Terminals

LONDON, May 15.—Plans for an aerial Pullman are being examined by British aircraft authorities. A great, slim, metal saloon, like a long, tapering Pullman car, will be based on a railway station to receive its passengers. When they are aboard an engine will take it to an aerodrome where it will be hoisted to an airplane chassis and will shed the car wheels. When the plane arrives at its destination the process will be reversed.

RICHMOND SEEKS TO JOIN DISTRICT

RICHMOND, May 15.—The mayor and members of the city council of Richmond will seek a rector of the Eastbay Union District and discuss the matter of Richmond's joining the district. It was decided by the city council at their meeting last night.

This action was precipitated by a resolution to the council drafted by the Richmond Industrial Commission at their luncheon last week, and following the rejection by the voters of this city of the proposal submitted at the election on May 8. The resolution suggested that the question be submitted at an election when the voters will pass upon the charter now being drafted.

Major Grant Urges $900,000 for Rivers

TRIBUNE BUREAU, SACRAMENTO, May 15.—Major U. S. Grant III of the United States engineers, appeared before the assembly committee on ways and means to explain to that body the importance of the $900,000 to widen and clear the mouths of the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers in the interest of flood control work.

It is stated that should the state make the appropriation provided under the bill a similar amount will be forthcoming from the federal government.

MAN CONFESSES SUSPECT IS CLARA PHILLIPS OF L. A.

Carson Is Working Hard to Prevent Return of Ham- mer Slayer to U. S.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE
TEHUACALPA, Honduras, May 15.—Jesse Carson, who posed as the husband of the woman killed by the Honduran authorities as Clara Phillips, California hammer murderer today told newspaper men that the woman in reality was Mrs. Phillips.

Carson, who is also being held by the authorities, asserted, however, that Mrs. Phillips was not responsible for the death of Mrs. Albert Meadows, for which she was convicted, the real slayer, according to his story, being another woman.

In view of this, he added, he would fight against extradition of Mrs. Phillips, spending $10,000, if necessary, in his defense.

Carson has addressed a number of notes to President Guiterrez asking for an interview, but he has received no reply.

Alameda Rotarians Hosts to Vallejo

ALAMEDA, May 15.—The Alameda Rotary club acted as hosts yesterday to the Vallejo Rotary club at its weekly luncheon at Neptune Beach. K. C. Kennedy, president, was in charge of the day and extended a welcome to the visiting Rotarians in the name of the Alameda club.

A brief business session followed the luncheon at which five new members were initiated. During the afternoon, a social program was given, consisting of a bathing girl review, high diving and water relay races.

Young Woman's Body Found in the Surf

NEW YORK, May 15.—(By International News Service)—The body of an unidentified woman, apparently about 23, was found just inside the surf line at Long Beach today. She had been dead about an hour, police said. The body was fully clothed.

LEGISLATORS ARE IN HURRY TO CLEAN UP 550 MEASURES

Sudden Jam Occurs Through Senate Committee Action On Bus Line Tax.

By E. VAN LIER RIBBINK.
TRIBUNE BUREAU, Sacramento, May 15.—Both the Assembly and Senate are engaged in a race against time to clean up, between the two houses, approximately 550 bills before adjournment takes place, officially at 5 o'clock next Friday afternoon, but actually not before Sunday.

A sudden "jam" has occurred, however, through the action of the Senate committee on revenue and taxation in interfering with the smooth passage of an important piece of legislation, the bill of Assemblyman Duval, taxing the bus and truck lines of the state 6 percent of their gross income. As a result of this, the bill was not passed out of the floor of the Senate, and the only hope of its proponents now is to move in the Senate that the measure be taken out of committee. Proponents believe that they have enough to put through this motion.

There was an echo of a sensational Oakland case of wife and child desertion in the Assembly when it passed the bill of Senator Frank J. O'Connell, making a husband primarily responsible for the support of his child or children, and providing that, in the event he can prove that he is unable to support the child, the responsibility falls on the wife. The bill provides, furthermore, for the extradition of a father so deserting his child. In presenting the Carr bill to the House, Assemblyman Edward J. Smith of Oakland reviewed the Oakland case at length.

OTHER BILLS PASSED.

Among other bills of Alameda county senators passed by the Assembly was one by Senator T. C. West, ordering that preference be given to the employment of Spanish-American war veterans in the public and semi-public buildings.

The Assembly also passed Senator Edgar S. Hurley's bill, the first "bucket shop" bill, which makes "bucket shops" a felony. Mrs. Anna L. Saylor, assemblywoman of Berkeley put through the joint Saylor-Crawley pharmacy bill, making it compulsory for pharmacists to be graduates of the California School of Pharmacy, reducing the actual experience period for pharmacists from five to four years, and providing that every pharmacist must have devoted at least 18 months of his life to a study of his profession in college. There was opposition to the bill, originating mainly from Southern California pharmacists who, Mrs. Saylor charged, were against the bill "because they charge cheaper here in their stores." Mrs. Saylor made the point that pharmacists should be highly trained, since otherwise the profession becomes a menace to public health and life. The bill was opposed by Assemblyman Morris, who declared that "it would build a Chinese wall around the pharmacy profession in California," and who also stated that the requirement of a college education would prevent the chances of those unable to pay for such tuition.

The matter of the strike in the railroad shop came up in the Assembly when that body adopted the resolution of Senator Will R. Sharkey of Martinez, memorializing the President to mediate in the strike. Senator Sharkey's bill, making it a misdemeanor to furnish false information to newspapers or other publications, was also passed.

LABOR DAY STATE HOLIDAY.

On the introduction of Assemblyman Chris B. Fox of Berkeley, the Assembly passed the bill of Senator Edgar S. Hurley of Oakland, making Labor Day a state holiday.

Quite reasonable in these days of camping trips and summer outings was the passage by the Assembly of the Senate bill tightening the forest fire laws by requiring a written permit for campers from the state forester.

The Senate took out of committee the constitutional amendment, proposed from the Assembly side, which would permit all-round boxing contests. Instead of four-day bouts as allowed at present all hopes of securing 10-round boxing bouts went by the board when the Senate refused to reconsider the recently defeated bill of Assemblymen Morrison and Pettit.

Further headway was made by Senator Arthur Breed's motor vehicle bill and two cents per gallon tax measure, when the Assembly committee on ways and means recommended out both bills with "do."

Speaker Frank F. Merriam expressed satisfaction with the progress being made in the Assembly, where a large number of bills were passed up to midnight last night. Most of these were "uncontested" bills, which means that the disputable issues will be posed off in the last two or three days of the session. The Senate has many more bills on file than the Assembly, but its methods are speedier, and its smaller membership makes for shorter debate.

DIVORCE SUIT DROPPED.

LOS ANGELES, May 15.—The divorce action recently filed by Gertrude Robinson Kirkwood against James C. Kirkwood, motion picture actor, charging cruelty and desertion, has been dropped. It was made known in the superior court yesterday. No explanation was given.

'Pitiless Publicity' Urged To Curb Election Expense

By E. VAN LIER RIBBINK

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Sacramento, May 15.—Napoleon once remarked that "the God of battles always fights on the side of the largest battalions." In the same way it is declared by the special senate committee, which has just concluded its investigations into the receipts and expenditures of persons, committees, firms, associations, clubs and groups of persons who received and expended money in excess of $1000 to secure the passage or defeat of measures appearing on the ballot at the general election held November 7, 1922, that:

"It is a very significant fact, and one which the people of the state cannot too quickly nor too seriously realize that in the case of each of the seven most strenuously contested propositions, that side won which spent the most money."

The report of the special committee, presided over by Senator Herbert Jones of San Jose, further states that:

EXPENDITURES GIVEN.

The committee publishes the following table of expenditures for and against the seven principal measures on the ballot:

Water and Power Act—For	Against	Total
For	112,920.05
Against	601,606.68	$661,695.73
Regulating Practice of Law—For	50,818.88
Against	66,971.41	117,890.29
Prohibition Enforcement Act—For	79,457.22
Against	22,172.24	101,629.46
Child Labor Act—For	24,214.81
Against	2,669.82	26,884.63
Detention Act—For	40,481.00
Against	2,669.81	43,150.81
For	5,557.45
Against	22,217.31	41,772.73
Housing Act—For	43,511.45
Against	19,581.28	33,932.73
Total		$1,065,758.94

Another table is furnished by the committee, showing propositions on which expenditures did not run so high, as follows:

State Budget—For	$6,548.03;	against	—; total, $6,548.03.
Initiative (requiring increased signatures)—For	(included in expenditures against single tax)	against	$10,232.36; total $10,232.36.
Prohibiting Vivisection—For	(no investigation, inability to get witnesses)	against	$5,169.24; total, $5,169.24.
Indemnification Franchise—For	—; against	—; total	$21,946.68.
AGGREGATE UNKNOWN.

The report goes on to state that: "By adding together the expenditures for the six initiative measures last above set forth and the expenditures for the seven measures mentioned, there appears a grand total of $1,037,706.08 expended in the campaigns in connection with the thirteen initiative and referendum measures."

"It must not be assumed, however, that this grand total of $1,037,706.08 truly represents the total expenditures, on account of the foregoing measures. In two chief particulars the committee found that it was impossible to ascertain the total expenditures in

COUNCIL TO HAVE 2 NEW MEMBERS

RICHMOND, May 15.—Mayor

E. J. Garrard was the only one of the three incumbents of the city council who was re-elected to that body at yesterday's general election. Councilman Harry O. Watson and Thomas V. Cole were beaten.

Frank A. Scholes and George F. Black were the other successful candidates. There was a total of 4053 votes polled, which is about 60 per cent of the registration. The vote was as follows: Frank A. Scholes, 2080; Edward J. Garrard, 2056; George F. Black, 2059; Thomas V. Cole, 1851; Harry O. Watson, 1886; Otto R. Ludwig, 1332.

Mrs. Sutherland to Be Buried Tomorrow

Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Mrs. Mary Sutherland, mother of W. A. Sutherland, president of the Pacific Northwest Trust and Savings Bank of Fresno, and vice-president of a chain of affiliated banks.

Mrs. Sutherland, who had been failing for several weeks, died Sunday night at her home, 1735 Seventh Avenue. Other relatives who survive are Angus E. Sutherland, the widower, Rev. J. A. Sutherland of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, a son; Dr. R. T. Sutherland, 4650 Park boulevard, and Miss Minnie Sutherland, daughter.

The funeral services will be held from undertaking parlors at Telegraph Avenue and Thirtieth street. Interment will be at Mountain View cemetery. Mrs. Sutherland was 75 years of age and a native of Scotland. She came to Oakland 51 years ago.

REBELS TORTURE FOES.

BUENOS AIRES.—Brazilian rebels tortured all the prisoners they took near Uruguayana, according to reports received here.

from the charges or expenses on which rates are fixed, so that the public may not be compelled to pay these campaign contributions."

The report is signed by Senators Herbert C. Jones, chairman; Walter H. Hays, and Assemblyman M. B. Harris, and J. A. Rominger.

NEW EVIDENCE BECOMES PUBLIC IN MOUNT CASE

State's Attorney Concludes Probe Into Death of College Student.

CHICAGO, May 15.—A three-day ancillary investigation into the disappearance of Leighton Mount, Northwestern university student, was concluded by the state's attorneys' staff last night, and with its end new evidence became public, shattering some previous testimony and adding weight to the suicide theory, one of three theories advanced to explain the mystery.

Four witnesses were questioned, Miss Doris Fuchs, Harry Warren, 15-year-old boy who found the skeleton accepted as Mount's; Dr. Clarence A. Neymann and Herman F. Steinborn, a spiritual adviser. "We do not pretend to say that either suicide, voluntary disappearance or murder has been proved or eliminated," State's Attorney Crowe said. "We have simply found out that there are some possibilities in this case and we mean to go to the bottom of every one."

The Warren boy's testimony, it is reported, shattered what authorities had believed as substantial proof of slaying, accidental or otherwise. He told Assistant State's Attorney Gorman, conducting the inquiry that there were no rocks over the bones when he found them. Previous reports stated that hundreds-pound boulders partly hid the disarticulated skeleton.

Mr. Steinborn, it is reported, told his questioner that he is convinced Mount was alive October 15, three weeks after his disappearance. Mr. Steinborn said, came to his office for a course in harmonics.

OLD RESIDENT DIES.

ALAMEDA, May 15.—Funeral services will be held tomorrow for Mrs. Sarah Louise J. Swartz, for more than forty years a resident of this city, who died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clara Lawton, 2850 Jackson street. Mrs. Swartz was born in New Zealand. She was 73 years of age. Besides her daughter she is survived by two sons, Edwin and C. D. Swartz.

17 DEAD AND 150 MISSING IN HOT SPRINGS FLOOD

Cloudburst and Fire Is Followed by Night of Terror in Arkansas.

Hot Springs, Ark., by land, failed today when automobiles sent toward the flooded city here were compelled to turn back. All bridges in the neighborhood of Hot Springs either are down or impassable, the motorists reported. A message from Little Rock said attempts were being made to despatch an airplane from there. Efforts also were being made to communicate by wireless.

Basin of Ouachita Warned of Flood

NEW ORLEANS, La., May 15.—The weather bureau today issued a flood warning for Arkadelphia, Ark., because of rise of from 5 to 8 inches in the upper Ouachita basin for the past 48 hours.

All Guests Saved From Hotel Fire

OTTUMWA, Iowa, May 15.—A telegram from Charles G. Orr, owner of the Marquette Hotel at Hot Springs, Ark., to W. H. Keating, of this city, his brother-in-law, today reports that all guests of the hotel were saved from the blaze which destroyed it.

Cloudburst Wrecks Little Rock Homes

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 15.—(By International News Service.)—The western section of Little Rock was swept by a terrific gale last night, followed by the worst cloudburst this city has ever known. The storm struck suddenly in the eastern suburbs, leaving many wrecked homes and hundreds of uprooted trees in its path. Water roared down the streets like mountain torrents, carrying wooden blocks, planks, sign boards and other debris into the Arkansas the headquarters. I saw bandits everywhere, but all were respectful. "I was taken into a house. In a clean room, having a table and four benches, I was given the place of honor at the table. Sun Mei-jan, the second in command, seated himself opposite others who entered. Then a young man—clean, well-dressed, wearing eyeglasses—appeared. The others showed him every mark of respect, and then I learned that he was called Wang, the commander-in-chief. "Throughout our interview he was quiet, dignified, cordial, friendly, grim.

"Taking a seat at my left, he explained that his men were not bandits, but had been deprived of their livelihood when they were dismissed as soldiers, unpaid. They determined on the wholesale kidnapping of foreigners to force the military service. He emphasized that they did not want money in return for the captives.

"I listened to everything he said, and promised everything that I felt I could promise.

"Wang quietly told me that he had prepared for the slaughter of his captives unless his demands were accepted within, first he said three days, then two days. The demands were that troops be withdrawn, with the assurance given that there would be no reprisals in any form, and guarantees that the bandits be re-enlisted in the military forces.

"UNABLE TO SOFTEN OR MODIFY TERMS. "I talked with him for more than an hour, but was unable to soften or modify the demands, which included guarantees from the foreign diplomats, since the bandits were unwilling to accept any pledges from Chinese officials however placed.

"Then I begged to see the captives. First they brought in Leon Friedman. He looked well and sat down and talked to me for a quarter of an hour. He then called Kiddy Elias, who was well red-checked. Major Allen then was brought in. He was calm, self-possessed. Next the younger Elias was carried in—carried because his right foot was injured and badly swollen, the condition of it looking serious. When he asked for medicine the bandits told him a doctor was coming. The storm sewers soon were overloaded and the water rushed along the surface, in some places three and four feet deep. Many stores were flooded, causing thousands of dollars damage.

Ban on Paddock Is Attacked by S. P. A.

bers of the Southern Pacific association of the Amateur Athletic Union at a meeting here refused to sustain the action of the national body in disqualifying Charles W. Paddock, sprinter, from amateur competition because he ran in the international students meet in Paris. It was announced today.

States in time to run for U. S. C. in the national collegiate association meet at Chicago next month, according to his father, C. H. Paddock.

British Denounced For Vorovsky Death

VLADIVOSTOK, May 15.—(By the Associated Press.)—A huge anti-British demonstration was held here yesterday. The crowds holding that British "imperialists" were responsible for the assassination at Lausanne of Vorovsky, the soviet delegate to the Near East peace conference.

The demonstrators demanded the death of the British "imperialists."
Local Englishmen were not molested.

LAUSANNE, May 15.—(By the Associated Press.)—The civil ceremony yesterday over the body of Vorovsky, assassinated soviet delegate, symbolized in detail Red Russia and afforded a striking manifestation of the Russian feeling against Ismet Iasha and the members of his delegation were the only persons having relation to the Near East conference that attended the service in the little chapel of the cemetery. The casket was taken to a special car which will leave today for Moscow.

Czech Commission

ON DEBT ARRIVAL

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The mission sent by the Czech-Slovakian government to negotiate a settlement of its war-time debt to the United States arrived yesterday in Washington. Although no date has been set for it to meet with the American debt commission, treasury officials anticipate no difficulties in reaching an agreement for deferring payment of the $105,000,- 000 obligation.

Informal advices have reached the treasury that the Italian government, which owes about $1,750,- 000,000 would seek to have the same terms accorded it in a funding settlement as were given Great Britain.

Dope Distributing Center Broken Up

NEW YORK, May 15.—A large narcotic distributing center was broken up today as the result of a raid in which $50,000 worth of dope was seized and one man was arrested. The suspect gave his name as Cohen. Two of his alleged confederates are sought by police. Records appearing to indicate shipment of drugs to addresses in Hollywood, Pittsburgh,
Chicago, Syracuse and other cities were found in the apartment room where the drugs were seized, according to Dr. Carlton Simon, head of the narcotic division.

Contrary to common belief, electric storms do not sour milk; high temperature does it.

Woman 98 Years Old Buried at Patterson

PATTERSON, May 15.—The funeral of the late Mrs. J. C. Knutson was held yesterday afternoon from the Lutheran church. Interment was made in the Patterson cemetery. Deceased had reached the age of 98 years 4 months and 4 days. She died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Carrie

Dennison, after an illness of some time.

Is This Valentino or Novarro?

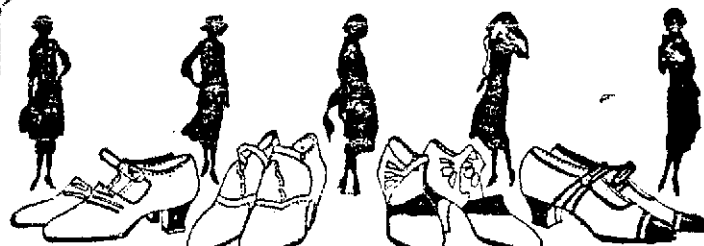

Dashing Young Screen Lover Whose Irresistible Love Making
Is a Revelation in "Trifling Women" at the Franklin.

Rex Ingram's Greatest Love Drama features screen's newest vampire in sensational role of mysterious sorceress.

A whirl of emotions, exotic atmosphere, lavish settings, overwhelming passions, and a mysterious crystal gazer luring powerful men into her net, breaking them one by one in her mad quest for love and power made of "Trifling Women," a supreme photodrama.
Rex Ingram outstrips in it his former successes, "The Four Horsemen" and "The Prisoner of Zenda." Barbara La Marr, who plays the sinful siren, displays
Paris creations that have cost thousands, and her voluptuous delineation of the strangely gifted sorceress place her at the head of the world's vampires. Ramon Novarro, who sprung up overnight as the screen's handsomest lover, is cast as the son who fights his father for the illicit love of the vamp. Lewis Stone plays the implacable husband who,
with machiavelian ingenuity wreaks vengeance upon the two lovers in a climax that is breathtaking in its intensity and suspense.
A comprehensive and exceedingly interesting explanation of the Einstein Theory of Relativity is shown every morning at 10 o'clock.
John Wharry Lewis delights with a diversified musical program.

Three Happy Faces --and a HOME

CONTENTMENT is man's reward when he owns his home. It may have meant a struggle of years, but once acquired he assumes a feeling that the world is all right. This feeling is contagious and it spreads to his wife and children.

But you'll never know the genuine joy of living until you can say to yourself, "This home is mine."
Especially is this true if you select your home in a well chosen neighborhood, plan it to your own ideas of comfort and protection.

With lowered costs resulting as family men should be able to own their own home.

Tomorrow, Wednesday, you will find actual pages of home offerings classified for your convenience in the

HETCHY LINE IN COUNTY STARTED

Alameda county's portion of the 200-mile conduit that is ultimately to carry the Hetchy Hetchy water supply to San Francisco is soon to be under construction, as the result of action taken by the San Francisco board of public works. The board awarded a contract of $3,311 for the boring of test holes near Niles, preparatory to the building of a $5,000,000 conduit in this country that will later form a part of the Hetchy Hetchy system. The local conduit will be used temporarily by the Spring Valley Water company, for the purpose of diverting water from the Calaveras reservoir, near Niles, to the company's Crystal Springs Lake in San Mateo county. The company will pay 5 per cent of its construction cost.

GEOMETRY DEVICE SHOWS SHADOWS USUALLY FALSE

Mathematic and Philosophical Theories of Ancients Checked by Oaklander

The inadequacy of shadow to represent substance in its true and complete aspect is strikingly illustrated in a geometrical device constructed by George Sykes of 1202 Santa Clara avenue, Alameda. The device is built up of triangles made of 12 balls or points around one central ball and connected with slender wooden rods. This device is in the form of a tetrahedron.

By casting shadows with this device a great variety of shadow forms can be produced ranging from a simple square to complicated geometrical figures. This shadow form is pointed out by Sykes, will be of great assistance to students of geometry or drawing. By the use of this tetrahedron, the various geometric forms can be seen as having length, breadth and thickness, while the shadow cast by them will coincide with the drawings used in textbooks to represent the various figures.

SHADOWS DEMONSTRATED In demonstrating his device today, Sykes cast a number of shadows upon a white surface, illustrating the variety of geometrical figures that can be produced in shadow form by the arrangement. These shadow changes were produced simply by changing the position of the device.

"Socrates, Pythagoras, and other ancient philosophers who call the geometric universe," Sykes said in explaining the working principle of his device. "My device is constructed on the same principle—12 points surrounding a central point. Each point is named after a basic symbol in the universe—the bear, the names of ancient Greek gods. The system can be expanded indefinitely by adding triangles after triangles.

The origin of symbols is illustrated by the device. The shadows cast on a white surface are a "E" the basic god of all things; the star of David, the symbol of 18, the Kabala, etc.

The ancients discovered that from 9 points on the surface of the earth, 19 stars appeared in conjunction, making the square of nine points. They also discovered that, standing at 18 points on the surface of the earth, 18 stars appeared in conjunction, making a six-pointed star in perfect geometric arrangement.

In this geometric device, you will note that there is a Greek cross inside a pyramid from whatever angle you look at it. It complies with the ancient law of twelve and sixes. There are countless checks on this. As one example, there are 56 rods connecting the points with the geometric law of 12, added together make 12. You will note also that, any way you turn this geometric formation, you will find 6 spheres with a distance of 60 degrees between them, coming with the geometric law of 120 degrees to the circle.

"Scientists say everything is electrons," Christian Scientists say everything is mind. I say everything is geometry. A human being who studies and meditates on the mathematical facts or laws of his labor, finds that, as he studies and meditates on these facts or laws, there is manifested to him the true philosophy of mathematical evolution and its relation to human and Universe evolution. The greatest philosophers that have existed on earth have had no titles added to their names other than "basket weavers," "tent makers," "carpenters," "stone masons" and so on. They arrived at the great truths they expressed through meditation on the mathematical laws of their labor.

140 People to Serve You

The paramount policy of The Venus—the factor that is responsible for this shop's constantly increasing popularity—is service to its patrons, a service which only an Oakland firm, catering to Eastbay people, is in a position to give.

When The Venus was founded twelve years ago, only 14 people were required to give the necessary service. Today, ten times that number, 140 people, are employed in order that the policy which has made The Venus' popularity may be continued.

Another element of Venus' service, less obvious but none the less important, is its continued policy of selling its fine candies and pastries only at retail. Hundreds of times this firm has been urged to wholesale its wares and always it has refused. Wholesale means a profit allowance, which means either increased prices or decreased quality. Neither is in keeping with The Venus' ideals.

A third factor in Venus' service is its acceptance of telephone orders and its maintenance of a rapid delivery system for all orders.

Another important phase of this policy of serving its patrons is found in the fact that The Venus administers its own business, preferring to keep direct control over its affairs without dividing its responsibility between another business house and its own patrons.

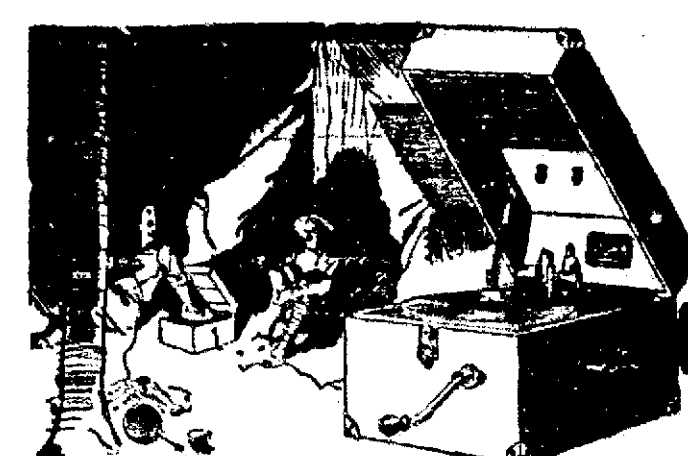

When you buy fine candies or pastries—when you want a perfect breakfast, luncheon or dinner, look to The Venus for complete, painstaking, satisfying service.

Invitations Out For Home Wedding in June

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Cook have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Madeline Cook, and John Marshall Evans, the wedding to take place at the family home in Tenth avenue east of the lake, June 6. One hundred and fifty will be guests.

Miss Edwina Owen will be maid of honor and the bridesmaids the Misses Edna Mae Cook, a cousin of the bride, Miss Helen Hill, whose betrothal to Everett Gray has just been announced; Miss Lucile Ridgely and Miss Eva May Lange of Bakersfield.

Frank B. Cook, Jr., will be best man at his sister's wedding and the ushers Fred Moller, Austin Elmer, LeRoy Krusi and Geoffrey Bangs.

Miss Cook is a Chi Omega and graduate of the University of California with the class of '22. Evans is a Beta Theta Pi fraternity man and graduate of the State University, holding membership in several honor societies on the campus. He is a son of Mrs. J. W. Evans of this city.

Among the many social affairs for the bride-elect are a bridge luncheon at which Mrs. Fred Temple will preside as hostess at her home in East Oakland, May 26. The hostess is a sorority sister of the bride-elect.

On May 29 Miss Lucile Ridgely will give a bridge tea in Claremont at her home.

Saturday afternoon Miss Frances Brattain gave a smart bridge and tea for two score guests at her home in Broadway Terrace.

WEDDING TONIGHT ON PIEDMONT CHURCH

Piedmont Interdenominational church is to be the background for the marriage of Miss Mary Virginia Ladewig daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Ladewig of Boulevard Way and Cecil J. Havens of 2340 Colton this evening. Rev. C. D. Milliken, pastor will officiate, in the presence of three hundred guests. Later a reception will be held at the home for seventy-five guests.

Pink and white roses in garlands will decorate the chancel and the color scheme to be carried out at the home where baskets of roses will adorn the supper tables.

Miss Ladewig is to be married in a gown of white satin with an overdrap of French embroidered chiffon. She will dispense with the formality of a bridal veil wearing in lieu of this, a coronet of orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet will be of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Dorothy Whalley is to be the only attendant upon Miss Ladewig and will be given in crisp turquoise blue tulle. Contrasting with this will be an arm bouquet of deep pink Columbia roses. She will wear a bandeau of rhinestones on her coiffure.

DATE IS SET FOR JUNE 12

Miss Mary Frances Porter has just returned from a fortnight's stay in Santa Maria as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Porter. Miss Porter has set as the date for her wedding to Edwin French Steen, Tuesday June 12, and will select her bridesmaids in the near future. The wedding will take place in the Chantry of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Bishop William Ford Nichols to read the Episcopal ritual assisted by Rev. W. R. H. Hodgkin, rector at St. Marks.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Porter of Berkeley.

Miss Lucille Brington, betrothed to Theodore Schlueter, and Mrs. Harry Hennings (Helen McPherson) are to share honors at a bridge luncheon tomorrow afternoon at the Sequoyah Country club, at which Mrs. Howard Swift will preside as hostess to twenty girls. Mrs. Swift is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Schlueter who are now in Italy. The young matron was Miss Pearl Schlueter.

Mrs. Victor Owens will entertain the members of a bridge club May 29, at Sequoyah Country club.

Betrothal cards revealed yesterday the wedding of Miss Mary Virginia Ladewig daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Ladewig and Cecil J. Havens of 2340 Colton. The bride-elect was graduated from the University of California and is a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority. Stephenson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Stephenson of Vernon street. He is affiliated with the Delta Chi fraternity. The wedding will take place this summer.

Five hundred invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Eleanor Campbell and William Robert Blair, the services to be read at St. Mark's Episcopal church June 6 at 8 o'clock by Rev. W. R. H. Hodgkin. A reception to the bridal party and closest friends will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Campbell, parents of the bride-elect.

Miss Rosalind Blair, sister of the bride-elect, is to be maid of honor and in the cortege of bridesmaids will be Miss Alma Baxter, Miss Claire Lowe, Miss Cecelia von Zalken, Miss Elizabeth Houghton, Miss Azelene Eaton and Mrs. Parnell Balaam.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bissell left today for the east and before touring the Atlantic coast will go to Louisville, Kentucky, to witness the Kentucky Derby on Saturday.

Miss Elsie Heatley was hostess at her home in Ashmount Avenue in honor of Miss Adelaide Robbins Saturday afternoon and among her guests were the Misses Isabelle Robbins, Dorothy Friend, Margaret Phister, Florence Meyer, Mary Tavares, Natalie West, Frances Lewis, Phyllis Chamberlin, Sarah Edwards, Katherine Hendricks, Alice Jean Fisher, Helen Harris, Edna Marie Shoen and Virginia Flanagan.

MISS TYSON TO WED JUNE 3
Miss Dorothy Tyson, fiancée of Frank Harold McGrath, was on Saturday the guest of honor at a luncheon across the bay at which Miss Helen Hoover was hostess.

Turk-Greek Break Looms on Indemnity

LAUSANNE, May 15.—(By the

the allies at the Near East peace conference are being directed toward averting a possible break between Greece and Turkey over the question of reparations.

Former Premier Venizelos and M. Alexandris, the Greek foreign minister, had a lengthy conference yesterday with Ismet Pasha, head of the Turkish delegation. So far as appears, no grounds for a speedy and satisfactory solution were discovered. M. Venizelos warned Ismet that Greece, with her army strong and well equipped, would not stand for any payment of reparations.

SPECIAL FISHING

TRIP ARRANGED

The great municipal fishing festival for the tired business man begins at the end of this week.

Jay Nash, superintendent of the recreation department, has issued a general invitation for business men to enjoy a week-end fishing trip for the days between May 17 and May 20. The city camp will furnish an extra-superlative bill of fare for the four days, at special rates. Nash's official invitation, broadcast by the Chamber of Commerce, is as follows:

"A rate of $2.50 per day for board and lodging has been made which is higher than our regular rate, but we want to give you something extra in the way of 'eats'."

"It is an easy seven-hour trip up. Follow the highway through Tracy, Manteca, Oakdale, Chinese Camp, Priests and Groveland. Camp is just 16 miles beyond Groveland, on the Big Oak Flat road."

"Reservations for this special trip are limited to 100. Secure in your name at once. Pay when you get there."

"The trip is arranged for the men, but if your wife comes along, we will take care of her."

The "HOSTESS" Silver Plate

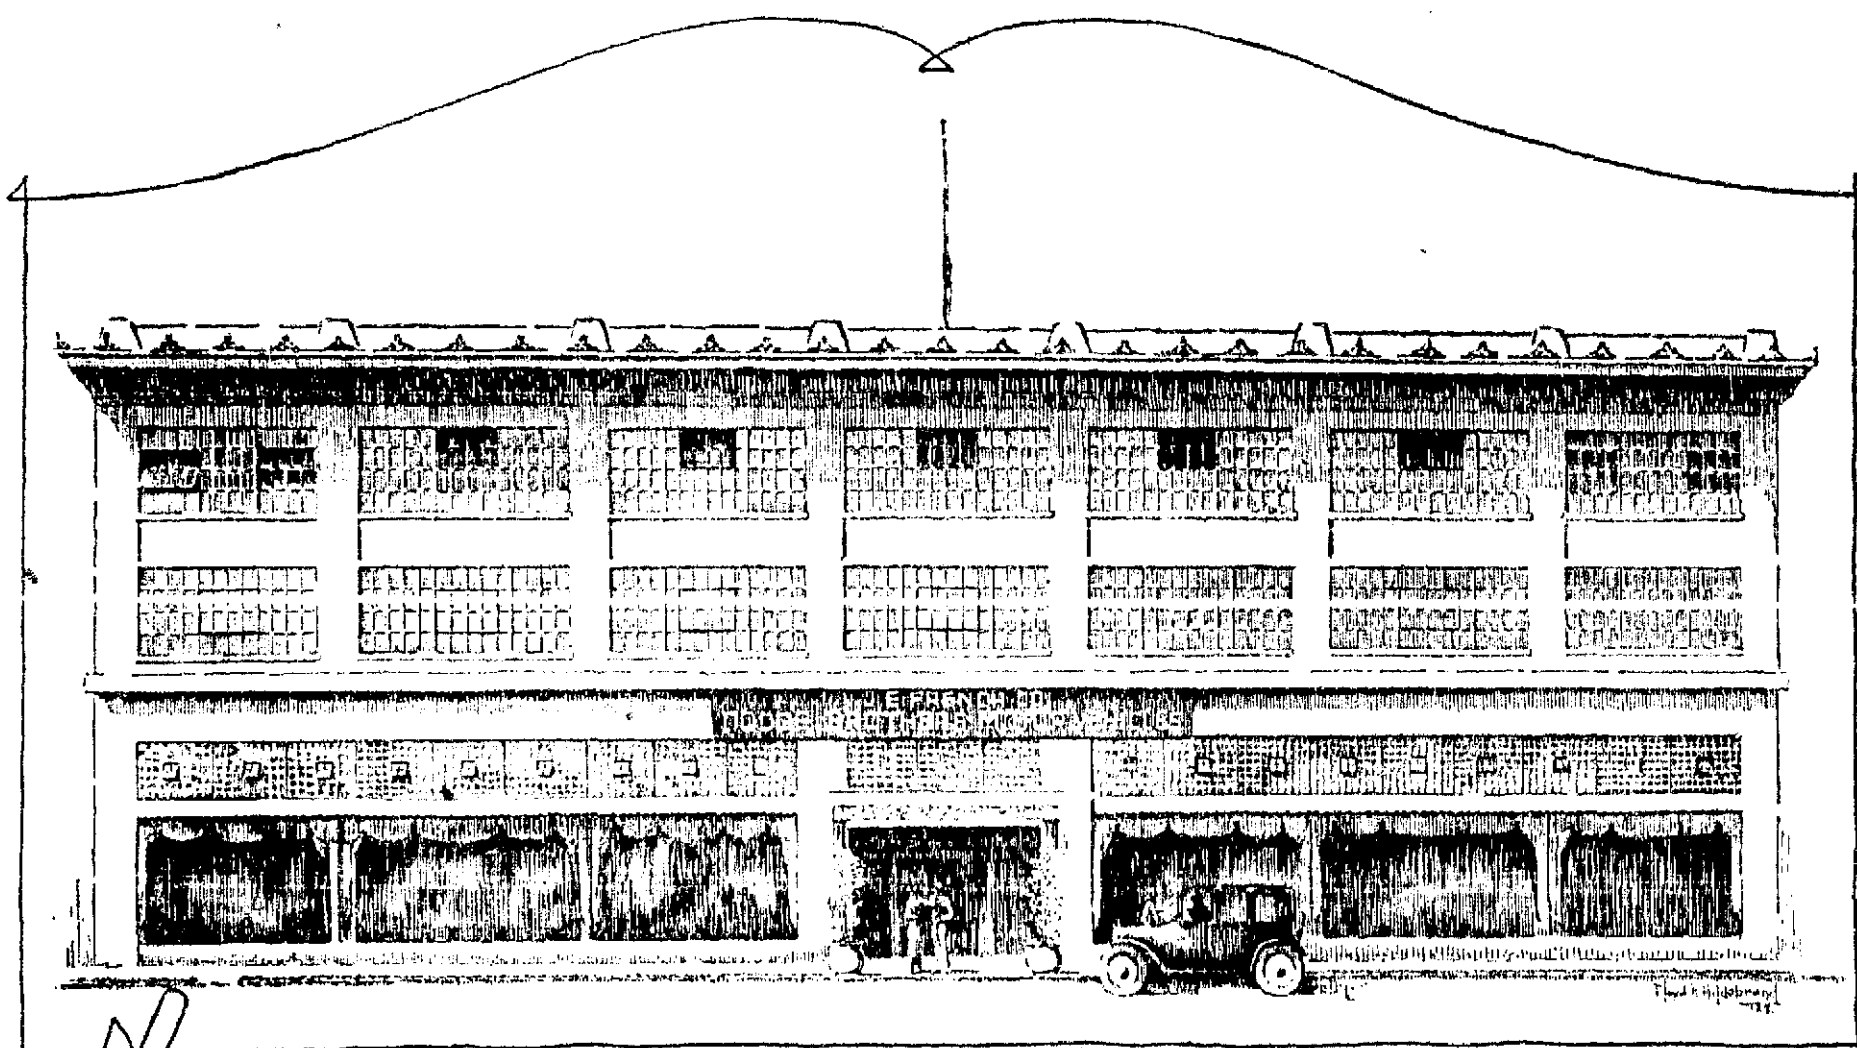

This pattern possesses the refinement and finish that one has been accustomed to associate only with the expensive Sterling ware.

The discriminating public has discovered in Wallace Silver a plated ware that they are proud to present to their friends, proud to own and use, proud to hand down to their children.

It will give us as much pleasure to show you our new "Hostess" pattern as you will experience in viewing it.

A PLEDGE RENEWED!

One year ago today, on our appointment as Dodge Brothers dealers, we made this pledge to Dodge Brothers owners and prospective owners:

"Dodge Brothers have made us their dealer for the Oakland and San Francisco districts. We interpret this appointment as a high honor and a serious responsibility.

"The public has come to look upon Dodge Brothers as manufacturers of a high order of integrity.

"These districts in particular, have evidenced implicit confidence in their honesty of purpose—and a marked preference for their product.

"Eight years' association with Dodge Brothers have taught us that they, in turn, require that their representatives shall scrupulously protect the confidence reposed in them by the public.

"Our one aim and ambition will be to reflect in our own organization the high regard in which they and their cars are held all over America and all over the world.

"Dodge Brothers' Motor Cars will be on display at our temporary salesrooms, where you will find many of the men who have been associated with the sale of Dodge Brothers' Motor Cars."

Judge for yourself how well we have kept our pledge. Today, we repeat that we are just as mindful of our responsibility.

PERMANENTLY AT 124 GRAND AVENUE

In the heart of the new business district, and in a building second to none in its sales and service appointments, we only ask the opportunity to serve you.

NEW ALLOCATION OF WAVE LENGTH NOW IN EFFECT

Change Affects All Stations
Except Those Still On Old 360 Band.

The new wave allocation for the radio broadcasting stations throughout the country went into effect at noon today. All stations will be operating on their new wave lengths by 6 o'clock this evening.

The change affects all stations, except those that asked to remain on the old 360-meter wave band. These stations in Northern California are The TRIBUNE, KLX; the Examiner, KQO; Warner Bros., KLS, and Hotel Oakland, KZM. All the other stations are operating on individual wave bands.

While practically all the broadcasting stations may come onto the air at any time they wish, due to the new arrangement, all stations will broadcast on schedule, and adding but little time to that already held by them.

All the class "B" stations on the Pacific coast are broadcasting on a wave above 400 meters, while the smaller stations, or class "A," are operating below 300 meters. The class "C" stations, or those that remain on the old wave, will broadcast on 360 meters, indefinitely.

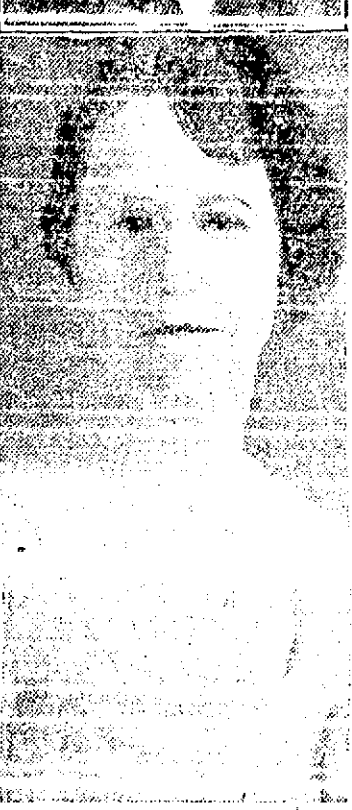

The class "B" stations on the Pacific coast, and their wave bands, are as follows: KPO, Hale Bros., San Francisco, 423 meters; KFDD, Telegraph Hill, San Francisco, 509 meters; KGW, the Oregonian, Portland, 455 meters; KHL, Los Angeles Times, 395 meters; KFI, Earl C. Anthony Co., Los Angeles, 469 meters.

The class "C" stations each have been assigned a national wave length, making it possible to hear any station in the United States, providing its range is great enough, without interference from another station of its class.

In the proportion of one in 1000 California every year.

REDISTRICTING LOSSES.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 15.—

The proposed charter amendment to re-district the city's wards was defeated and George F. Leach, incumbent, and W. A. Campbell were nominated for Mayor at yesterday's municipal primary election, according to preliminary official returns today.

BLACK AND WHITE TEAM TO AMUSE KLX RADIO FANS

Talented Team Just Back
From Tour on Program
This Evening.

Dorothea White and Rollie Black, soprano and tenor of Oakland, who have just returned from a tour of the northwest, where they were billed as Black and White, will entertain the radio audience from The TRIBUNE's station this evening, starting at 8 o'clock. They have been studying under the direction of Glo Tyler Taglien.

Miss White attended the Oakland schools, where she became well known in music circles. She possesses a voice of rare qualities.

Black has a strong tenor voice. He and Miss White are planning another vaudeville tour in the near future under the direction of Gene Prather, well-known pianist.

Your faith in Kellogg's Bran can never be misplaced—IT IS ALL BRAN!

Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krum-bled, will permanently relieve the most severe cases of constipation because it is ALL BRAN—not a food mixture that cannot possibly have sufficient natural corrective properties. Once constipation gets into your system you must fight it to the finish. Kellogg's Bran is the weapon. It will win for you. Don't take half-way measures; don't temporize.

Kellogg's Bran is permanent relief for constipation if it is eaten regularly—at least two tablespoonfuls daily; in chronic cases, with each meal. And, Kellogg's is a taste-delight because it is delicious and comes to you as a highly palatable, desirable food, as well as a corrective. You will greatly enjoy Kellogg's Bran as a cereal; its nut-like flavor universal!

improves any hot or cold cereal, and innumerable inviting bakery batches can be made with Kellogg's. Try some Kellogg's Bran pancakes. They're great! Or, raisin bread or gems! Kellogg's recipes are printed on each package.

For health's sake, get the whole family eating Kellogg's Bran just as quickly as possible, because it is ALL BRAN and it will make over the health of every big and little member. Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran because it is positive and because it will sweep and cleanse and purify, and put color back into faded cheeks. It will help children grow big and strong; it will clear and tone and brace up the system of every one who eats it regularly. All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran because its use is universal!

S. F. BOY MAYOR IS HONORED BY OPTIMISTS' CLUB

25,000 Young Americans
Take Part in Street Parade
As Throgs Cheer.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Boy Mayor Irving Rosenblatt, who during Boy's Week in this city will share the throne of Mayor Rolph and his cabinet, were the guests of honor today at a luncheon of the Optimists' club at the Palace Hotel. The luncheon was one of the many functions which have been arranged for this week when "Young America" will come into his own. Tomorrow evening Rosenblatt and his staff will hold a reception at the Whitecomb Hotel, and Thursday the boy officials will have charge of the California Development Association luncheon at the Palace Hotel. Boy Mayor Rosenblatt will preside and the guests of honor will include the members of his staff.

Boy's Week opened yesterday with a street parade in which more than 25,000 young Americans marched through the streets of the city, dressed in white, and carrying flags and banners. The parade started at Market and Sansome streets and followed Market street to the Civic Center, where it passed in review before Mayor Rolph and Boy Mayor Irving Rosenblatt, who during the week will share the position of the city executive. Also on the reviewing stand were city and county officials, educational leaders, representatives of the army and navy, including General Charles G. Morton, Admiral Alexander S. Halstead and General G. Barnett.

NEW by O. HENRY STORIES HUMAN FROM NEWLY DISCOVERED WRITINGS

A PATHETIC INCIDENT.

In a great city what sharp contrasts of wealth and poverty do we see, what a kaleidoscope of jewels and rags, glittering gold and commonest flannel. Standing muffled in his overcoat, reflecting on the unequal distribution of fortune's favors, we witnessed this scene a night or two ago out on Rusk avenue.

A great house brilliantly lighted. From the drawing-rooms there stole upon the frosty air the weird, fantastically sweet strains of a foreign waltz. Through the windows could be seen passing forms of beautiful white clad women attended by gallant men. All inside was warmth, luxury and happiness. Outside near the gate stood two forms. She was thinly clad and shivering with the cold. He stood with a bitter smile upon his face listening to the music within and holding her hand. Perhaps there was within those halls of joy and plenty, but her lips were drawn with the cold and the thin dress she wore was no protection against the chill.

"Oh, Jack," she whispered, "let us go, I am so cold."
He placed his strong arm about her waist and pressed his lips upon her forehead.
"Be it so," he said, "I believe the next dance is ours." And they went back into the house.

JUST FOR A CHANGE

The "lullaby" boy to the same old tune.
Who abandons his drum and toys.
For the purpose of dying in early June,
Is the kind the public enjoys.

But just for a change, please sing us a song
Of the sore-toed boy that's fly,
And freckled, and mean, and ugly, and strong,
And positively will not die.

Lot Owners Must Clear Off Grass

Superintendent of streets W. W. Harmon today issued a warning to residents owning vacant lots, warning them to burn off all long grass by June 1.

If the property owners will not do it, the street department will tackle the job and assess the owner ten cents per linear foot of frontage.

"It is going to be the aim of the street and fire departments to keep down the fire risks this summer throughout the whole city."

Plumas and Sierra Folk Plan Reunion

The thirteenth annual reunion of the Sierra-Plumas society will be held at Mosswood Park, Broadway and Moss avenue, on Sunday, June 3, according to an announcement made today by Louis I. Byington, president. Residents and former residents of Plumas and Sierra counties, and their families and friends, are invited to attend. Tables are to be provided for those who bring their lunches. A program has been arranged for the afternoon, including music and addresses. W. F. Eschbacher, 1 Greenbank avenue, Piedmont, is president of the society.

SMASHUP BRINGS

THEFT ARREST

Arrested by local police, following a smashup in a stolen automobile Saturday night, W. B. Emmal, who resides at the Hotel Angelus, Eleventh and Webster streets, was turned over to the police of Alameda today, and will be charged with grand larceny.

According to local authorities, Emmal admitted taking the automobile of W. A. Novak of Alameda, from the Bay Station garage, that city, Saturday night. He drove to Oakland and on East Fourteenth street collided with a machine driven by Miss Marie Parich, 8435 East Fourteenth street.

In the second application the Phi Kappa Tau of Berkeley, Inc., answered as petitioner asking to borrow $15,000. Their property is on Piedmont avenue, near Bancroft way. Pearce E. Ellis appears as representing the fraternity.

FRATERNITIES

PLAN CLUBHOUSES

Two Berkeley fraternities today have on file in the Superior court applications to borrow money on their properties with which to construct new club houses.

In the first petition filed the Sigma Phi Epsilon of Berkeley, Inc., asked to be allowed to borrow $39,000. The property to be secured for the loan is on Durant avenue. Alfred D. Davey signed the petition as representing the fraternity.

In the second application the Phi Kappa Tau of Berkeley, Inc., answered as petitioner asking to borrow $15,000. Their property is on Piedmont avenue, near Bancroft way. Pearce E. Ellis appears as representing the fraternity.

Harbor Is Topic

Of Luncheon Talk

"Our Harbor, Present and Future," was the topic of the luncheon talk given by John McCallum, president of the state board of harbor commissioners, addressed the Alameda County Commuters' club at the weekly luncheon today in the Palace hotel, San Francisco. The subject is timely," said J. E. Warren, chairman of the club.

DE FOREST SAYS

THIRTY IN NUMBER
THIRTY IN NUMBER

Privileged to be the only one outside of the excavating party to enter the tomb of King Tutankhamen at Luxor, Egypt, Robert W. De Forest, president of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, who arrived yesterday on the liner Samaria, today added his voice to those who deride the opinion that the Earl of Carnarvon, discoverer of the tomb, died from a poison infection contracted in the Pharaoh's burial chamber.

"Vengeance of the Pharaoh? There's all that's in it," said De Forest, "and also the idea of poison infection in the tomb because no other member of the excavating party was affected."

"I admired Carnarvon," continued De Forest, "because of the admirable manner in which he bore the responsibility to himself and archaeology in caring for the treasures found in the tomb. The rigid rules he used for guarding these rare finds were entirely justifiable."

Nurses Will Get Diplomas Tonight

Graduation exercises for the class of 1923, Alameda County Hospital School for Nurses, will be held tonight at 8:30 o'clock. The program includes an orchestra selection, invocation by Rev. F. K. Morrison, solo, Mrs. Clarence Page; address, Miss Anna G. James, director state bureau of nursing; remarks by Supervisor John F. Mullins, and presentation of diplomas by Joseph H. King, chairman county institutions commission.

CHIEF OF POLICE
PHOENIX POLICE

PHOENIX, Ariz., May 15.—The belief of authorities that the man arrested here yesterday under the name of L. H. White is Andrew L. Hepler, wanted at Butte, Pa., on a charge of embezzling $200,000, was strengthened today when Department of Justice officials, going through White's personal effects, discovered letters addressed to Hepler, and newspaper clippings telling of Hepler's business activities in Butte.

PHOENIX, Ariz., May 15.—Arrested last night on suspicion of being Andrew L. Hepler, wanted in Butte, Pa., on a charge of embezzling $200,000, a man who thus far has been called by the name of L. H. White was later turned over to department of justice officers. The prisoner was first suspected of being Hepler when two weeks ago when three women told police that they had seen a man who resembled him as Hepler. They reported that he was in the vicinity of the Phoenix Hotel and that he was wearing a suit and tie.

According to information here, Hepler is wanted on a charge of embezzling $200,000 from the Citizens Insurance Agency and Mortgage company, the Ideal Squab company, both Butte, Pa., corporations.

Sam A. Roper, secretary and treasurer of both companies, whom Hepler married after the collapse of his financial affairs last July, was also arrested at the time on similar charges. Both were at Butte on May 10, when Hepler reported to authorities that he had been drowned near Wheeling, W. Va., when their au-

Students Organize
Citizenship Club

The 1000 students of Elmhurst Junior high school have now organized a Good Citizenship club, officers and started student self-government.

The officers who will handle the club's affairs for the coming year are: Susan Briggs, president; Evelyn Olsen, vice-president; Genette Miner, secretary; Doris Wallgren, treasurer, and Billy Riegels and Carl Koerper, sergeants-at-arms.

MOTHER SCHEMES FOR DAUGHTER'S HAPPINESS

"Oh, Mother, Alice and her mother and father are going on a little motor trip down to Santa Barbara and they've asked me to go with them! Do you suppose I can? Well only he gone four or five days. I do want to go."

"Probably you can go. We'll have to ask your father, of course. The only difficulty is expense. You know your father told us both that we will have to economize until the house is paid for."

"But, mother, there will be very little expense. I have my lovely little sports count that was new last Fall and up to date. What more will I need?"

"Well if you are with the Allens you will need a pretty little dress or two. The little pink voile will do nicely, but you should have something a little better. A silk—tulle probably."

"I know it. I've wanted a silk dress for months now you know—but if I can't have it I want to go anyway."

"Well, you simply can't go without the proper clothes. I don't want your host and hostess to be ashamed of you. I know you have been needing a dark silk for some time and I'll buy you one. You have had very few new clothes for a long time and it may be possible to get this."

"Oh I do hope so. Because I want to go so badly I would have such a wonderful time!"

"I think it can be arranged. I know a smart little shop where you can buy such pretty things for young girls. And as for that matter, women and men too. Cherry's at 515 11th street. And they allow one to open a charge account too."

"Oh, yes!—the men's exclusive shop is at 528 15th street—Advertisement."

CIVIL WAR VETS ESTABLISHED AT MODESTO CAMP

San Diego Already Looms
As Candidate for the Next Reunion.

MODESTO, May 15.—The second day of the 18th encampment, C. A. R., division of California and Nevada, found the 400 veterans here well established and figuring out the line of march for tomorrow's parade.

Most of them are determined to hike it, having spurned the offer of automobiles. Good hot weather has struck the valley for the first time this season, and it is believed that if the heat keeps up there'll be more demand for automobiles as the parade progresses.

San Diego is listed as the probable winner of the 1924 encampment. Twelve good looking San Diego women are here getting on the good side of the veterans in blue, and the comrades of '61 already have about capitulated.

Judge Edwin H. Miller has announced himself as a candidate for senior vice-commander. He is police judge of Redondo Beach. So far he has no opposition. He is now department patriotic instructor.

Funeral of Oakland Man Held in S. F.

Funeral services were held in San Francisco this afternoon for Charles Edward Darling, Oakland business man and for years a figure in the commercial life of Alaska, who died Sunday in Carmel.

Darling was the husband of Mrs. Esther B. Darling, author of the story, "Baldy of Nome," and the owner of "Baldy" himself, one of the most famous of Alaskan sled dogs.

Darling was a native of Ireland. He was 52 years of age. Death resulted from influenza, which he contracted several years ago.

Surviving are his widow and four children: H. J. Darling, and Mrs. J. J. Darling, of Berkeley; Kathleen Darling, of Carmel; and Helen Darling, of San Pedro. The family home is at 2711 Piedmont avenue.

Policeman Ousted

For Auto Riding

A patrolman of the Oakland police department is literally expected to "pound his beat" with the actual sales of his pedestrian shoes, according to a ruling handed down today by Commissioner Frank Colbourn in suspending Patrolman Austin A. Page for 15 days.

Page, according to Colbourn, did not "pound his beat" but decanted around it in his automobile. Page is found guilty of "riding an automobile without permission while on his beat," and "leaving his beat without permission."

Sailor Suspect Held

For Rabbi's Murder

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Gladwell G. Richardson, 19, alleged navy deserter, was held to answer for the murder of Alfred G. Lafoe, April 4. He was arrested in Phoenix, Ariz. Last night the grand jury refused to indict him. He admits beating the cleric with a cuspidor, but claims to have acted in self-defense.

WILL QUIT BUSINESS.

Julius Goldberg, Oakland tailor, admitted in Judge Honess's court today that he was operating a suit club. He was arrested on complaint of the Oakland Tailors' Association and allied business organizations opposing suit club operation. Following a conference during court recess an agreement was reached whereby Goldberg is allowed till July 11 to complete all suit club contracts out. He is then to quit business.

DAILY the Actors Equity-Producing Managers situation becomes more menacing to the general good of the theater.

Last week a mass meeting was called in New York and 2,000 actors responded. At this meeting the actors adopted resolutions rejecting the concessions offered by the managers and insisting on Equity show, or closed shop.

In addition to that the members present took steps toward securing the memberships of some 18,000 vaudeville actors, two-thirds of whom are now members of the National Vaudeville Actors. It is accomplished the Equity will have a most important array of talent.

The meeting was called after the Equity committee rejected the offers of the managers and points to a general strike in 1924. That this strike, if called, will be far reaching in its effects is to be seen from the offer of Peter J. Brady of the state federation of labor assuring the prospective strikers of the support of organized labor throughout the country.

Augustus Thomas, executive head of the managers said when informed of the sentiment of the Equity meeting: "A mass meeting is not a deliberative body. The meeting was the result of a hurried call and the decision the result of emotion, not reason. When the actors come to think it over, they will see the value of the concessions offered by the managers. I believe."

Resides John Emerson, president of Equity, the other speakers included Ethel Barrymore, Peggy Wood, Jane Cowd, Helen Mackel-

lar, Frank Gilmore, Executive Secretary, and Francis Wilson, President Emeritus, who spoke against the Sunday bill. Others on the platform were Grant Stewart, John Drew, Laurette Taylor, Augustin Dancin, Malcolm Duncan, Edmund Breese, Grant Mitchell, John Cope, Will Deming, George Arliss, Katherine Emmet, Edith Gayer, Gilbert Emery, Scott Welsh, Harry C. Browne, Riche Ling, Otto Kruger, Robert Elliott, John Willard and Paul N. Turner.

This week Will King will conclude his musical comedy engagement in San Francisco and in doing so will have established a record for continuous running that will be difficult to outdistance. On Friday night he will have played 5440 times which is considerable of a period when you come to think of it. Further than that, it is estimated that some 7,000,000 persons have seen him during the past five years.

King started on his musical comedy career at Pop Fischer's in San Francisco when he was called in to replace Barney Bernard who was about to start on what eventually became a Polish and Portuguese career. It was at Fischer's that King, a former vaudeville player, became acquainted with Ben T. Dillon with whom he later teamed.

Resides John Emerson, president of Equity, the other speakers included Ethel Barrymore, Peggy Wood, Jane Cowd, Helen Mackel-

lar, Frank Gilmore, Executive Secretary, and Francis Wilson, President Emeritus, who spoke against the Sunday bill. Others on the platform were Grant Stewart, John Drew, Laurette Taylor, Augustin Dancin, Malcolm Duncan, Edmund Breese, Grant Mitchell, John Cope, Will Deming, George Arliss, Katherine Emmet, Edith Gayer, Gilbert Emery, Scott Welsh, Harry C. Browne, Riche Ling, Otto Kruger, Robert Elliott, John Willard and Paul N. Turner.

After a brief tour Dillon and King arrived in Oakland and took over the defunct Columbia theater and to the surprise of all concerned in theatrical activity made a howling success of it. They appeared at the Columbia for about four years with intermittent tours to Portland and Los Angeles. Then along in 1913 the team split up.

Five years ago King went under the Ackerman and Harris banners in San Francisco and he has been appearing in that city almost continually since then. His only lay-offs were vacations and excursions to Los Angeles and this city. Now it is announced he will remain with Ackerman and Harris and appear for brief seasons in other houses on the circuit.

Speaking of records, Lenore Thrio closed in "Kiki" at the Belasco theater in New York on May 5 after having achieved a run of 600 nights and she did not miss a performance.

Zoe Akus is now working on her new play "A Royal Pandemonium." No one has said that the Valentinos will work in it.

It is being rumored on Broadway that Morris Gest has secured the Hippodrome for his Max Reinhardt spectacles.

John Barrymore is at present at Morocco. It is said that he will resume Hamlet next season.

Oliver Morosco has accepted a new play, a comedy by Eleanor Mead. It is called "Because" and may be produced in New York this season.

Now that "If Winter Comes" has gone, Cyril Maude is planning to be strangled in "Arcturion." A new English comedy by Frederick Lonsdale. Maude will have the role of a rather gay old bird.

Mrs. Leslie Carter has arrived in town and is rehearsing "The Circle" at the Fulton theater where she opens a limited starring season on Sunday afternoon.

BODILY ASSAULT CHARGED BY CITY DAD' EJECTED

Supervisor Haynes Seeks a Warrant for Arrest of Bouncer, McLeran.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Supervisor John D. Haynes, forcibly ejected from the meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday, today applied for a warrant for assault to do great bodily harm against Ty Kreling, Olympic Club athlete and seaman-at-arms, and Supervisor Ralph McLeran, whom he charges with being an accessory.

District Attorney Matthew Brady referred the matter to one of his assistants, but it is not likely that a warrant will be issued.

Following a consultation with Assistant District Attorney Haggerty, Haynes withdrew the application for the warrant.

While a delegation of boy students of civic government who had been escorted to a place of honor that they might study city officials in action at close range, watched the proceedings in wide-eyed amazement, a miniature riot broke out at the meeting of the board of supervisors. Haynes was forcibly ejected from the meeting for the second time within a week, while spectators cheered and "booed" and Chairman Ralph McLeran pointed for order.

Hynes was dragged from his seat and removed from the room by Kreling, and police were stationed at both entrances to the chamber with instructions not to permit Hynes to re-enter.

The demonstration was a continuation of the wrangle which occurred last week, when Hynes insisted on talking after the five-minute rule had been invoked in a debate over the purchasing bureau ordinance. Hynes interrupted the procedure with the request that he be allowed to say something about "last week's disgraceful scene."

"Is this on a question of personal privilege," asked Chairman McLeran.

"No," answered Hynes. McLeran ruled him out of order. Hynes appealed to the board and the chairman's ruling was sustained by a vote of 17 to 1. Hynes then rose to a question of personal privilege. McLeran ruled that Hynes' integrity had not been attacked; that there was nothing for him to speak on under the head of personal privilege, and directed him to take his seat. Hynes again appealed from the decision of the chair.

Hynes shouted defiantly from his seat: "Muzzling and gagging is still proceeding."

He was still talking loudly when Kreling, acting under instructions from the chairman, seized him.

McLEAVE ESTATE PROBATED. Asking for letters of administration in the estate of the late Mrs. Mary C. McLeave, widow of the late Captain William McLeave, a petition was filed in the superior court today in behalf of Dr. Thomas C. McLeave, 2844 Garber street.

The estate is valued at $5000. Mrs. McLeave died at sea May 3 last. She leaves, besides the petitioner, the following children: Robert and Edward McLeave and Annie D. Miller.

What's Happen in the Motor World

The J. E. French Motor Company celebrated its first anniversary as Dodge Brothers automobile dealers here, by announcing that a lease had been signed on the building now occupied by the company on Grand avenue and that sales and service for owners would be maintained in the building.

The building was erected by H. O. Harrison Company in 1920, and the leasing of the building to J. E. French Company means that the needs of Dodge Brothers owners will be adequately cared for in a building especially designed for car sales and service.

The building is constructed of concrete throughout with tiled floors in the salesrooms. The service department and the shop are in the rear with a separate entrance on Twenty-third street. There is a large elevator in the rear too, so that cars can be taken to the shop and top departments with ease.

Included in the equipment for handling automobiles is a complete repair shop, a service department on the main floor where quick repairs are made. The repair shop and parts department are on the floors above and there is a complete paint and top department too.

The building was constructed with the idea of having plenty of room for all sorts of service and repair work and this has been done. Its arrangement is so that cars are never piled up and in the way of others going in and out. There is an entrance and an exit so that cars are handled easily.

1000 GALLONS OF WINE DUMPED

While a large crowd stood by 1000 gallons of choice wines were today dumped into the sewer at the warehouse of Theodore Gler, former wine merchant, at 531, Eighteenth street.

The wine was seized some time ago when Theodore Gler, owner of vineyards at Napa and the warehouse here, was arrested on the charges of violating the prohibition act. Gler and two of his employees are now serving terms in the Alameda county jail imposed by Federal Judge John S. Partridge.

ALAMEDA WILL EXTENSION FOR SIX MONTHS Be Asked On Harrison St. Structure.

ALAMEDA, May 15.—A resolution addressed to the Secretary of War protesting against the removal of the Harrison street bridge and the discontinuance of the electric street car service of the S. P. Company between Alameda and Oakland will be submitted to the city council for approval tonight by City Manager C. E. Hickok.

Receiving word from the railroad company today that the removal of the Harrison street bridge would commence May 20, Hickok immediately took steps to prolong the period of service of the "dinky" line.

The resolution asserts that there is no immediate need for the removal of the Harrison street bridge, and that the discontinuance of the "dinky" service would work a hardship on the people of western Alameda. It asks that the time for dismantling the bridge be extended six months.

Poisoned Nerves Cause Neuritis

Neuritis or "nerve inflammation" often follows an attack of malarial poisoning, typhoid fever, pneumonia or some other infectious disease. The most frequent causes of the trouble, however, are colds, injuries, bruises or nervous exhaustion.

Old dyspepsias, whom indigestion and sour, weak and sickly stomach, have made miserable for years, find quick and lasting relief in this simple remedy, and are again able to eat what they please. A glass of hot Magnesia water after meals prevents all trouble.

Prepare Magnesia water at home by dropping one teaspoonful or four tablets of pure Disrupted Magnesia in a glass of hot water. Any reliable druggist can sell you the genuine Disrupted Magnesia and stomach sufferers and dyspepsias who follow this plan and avoid the use of pepsin, charcoal, soda mints, drugs and stomach medicines will soon find that the stomach, relieved of irritating acid and gas, soon resumes its normal tone, and will do its work alone without the aid of artificial digestants.—Advertisement.

MAGNESIA FINE FOR DYSPEPTICS

Neutralize Dangerous Stomach Acids Which Cause Indigestion

The almost universal use of Magnesia by physicians and stomach specialists is due to the fact that it instantly neutralizes the dangerous stomach acids which caused nearly all digestive stomach trouble. With acid gone and stomach sweet, easy and painless digestion invariably follows.

Old dyspepsias, whom indigestion and sour, weak and sickly stomach, have made miserable for years, find quick and lasting relief in this simple remedy, and are again able to eat what they please. A glass of hot Magnesia water after meals prevents all trouble.

MYSTERY GIRL IN LARGENY CASE IS CHICO HEIRESS

Young Woman Charged with Theft of Car Released
From Custody

The veil of mystery which for several weeks past has enshrouded Mrs. Merle Allen, arrested some time ago on a grand larceny charge, was drawn aside today when the girl was arraigned before Superior Judge L. S. Church and the charge against her dispensed.

With her in court was her husband, who was arrested under the name of Richard Allen. Admitting that his true name is Dewey Hudson, he entered a plea of guilty to the grand larceny charge. The case grows out of the theft of an automobile in Oakland.

Mrs. Allen stated that her parents are wealthy. Today in the court hearing it developed that her father is C. E. Cummings, Chico business man, the family being prominent in Chico, where they have lived for years.

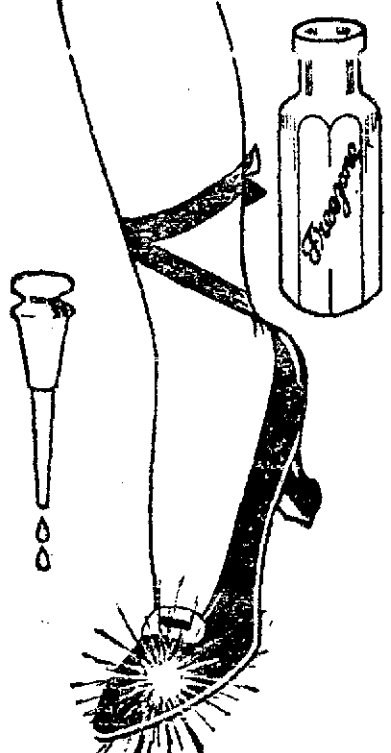

Assistant District Attorney Frank M. Shay told Judge Church that he was satisfied that Mrs. Allen was ignorant of the fact that the car was a stolen machine and that she had no part in the theft.

Spouse Saved.
Although Bernard H. Street had $3000 in the bank and an automobile salesman making $3000 a year, when he would take his wife, Cora May Street, to a restaurant he would refuse to order but would eat half of everything she ordered, she told Superior Judge James G. Quinn, who granted her a divorce.

Poppies Needed in Ground Breaking.
Wanted—one million poppies! This was the appeal for help made yesterday by E. A. Crowley, who is assisting Charles Foy of the manufacturers department of the Chamber of Commerce in securing poppies for the ground-breaking for the new Double Steam Motor Car Company, to take place May 26. As a part of the ceremonies King Young, the advertising manager, thought it would be appealing to have a score of dancing girls proceed the automobile parade to the ground-breaking exercises, scattering poppies. A survey of the county yesterday failed to reveal poppies in any great numbers.

As a result, Crowley, Foy and Young are looking for some other flower which will serve the same purpose.

Bishop Leonard Is Speaker at Picnic.
Bishop Adna W. Leonard addressed the picnic of the Bay Cities Ministerial Association yesterday at the Beach Rest House in Fruitvale. Bishop Leonard's address covered the recent Bishop Blake episode at Moscow, where the bishop addressed a conference of Russians interested in the formation of a new Russian church, and whose utterances, according to Bishop Leonard, were erroneously reported as approving the soviet government's ecclesiastical program.

Edwin Anders, Shot 6 Times. Meets Spouse for First Time in 3 Years.

BERKELEY, May 13.—Called to Berkeley by the serious condition of her husband, Edwin Anders, former University of Illinois faculty member, who shot himself six times in a cell at police station, Mrs. Edna Anders arrived this morning from Portland.

This morning at Temple Hospital Anders and his wife met for the first time in three years. Anders was conscious and wept as he greeted his wife.

"I don't want to live," he told her. "Why don't they let me die? This disgrace is too great for me!" Mrs. Anders refused to discuss her husband's case with anyone except the police.

At Temple Hospital this morning the condition of Anders was declared to be improved. He is said to have a good chance for recovery.

Mrs. Anders made the trip to Berkeley alone. Her three children she left in Portland. She refuses to state whether or not her husband's present predicament will lead to a reconciliation should the latter recover.

Anders shot himself with a small revolver which he secured in his shop when officers acceded to a request that he be allowed to change from an expensive suit of clothes to older garments. He was taken into custody on suspicion following a series of thefts of valuable books in stores about the bay.

Woman Earns $30 Per Day At Man's Job

NEW YORK, May 13.—Two mothers in overall earning big pay at husky men's jobs were discovered today. Mrs. Katherine Nelson, who is 35 years of age, and has a son, 17, and a daughter, 16, earns $30 a day as an electric welder. She works on department bridges, smokestacks and the like.

Mrs. Florence Thompson, 26, is a bricklayer—the product of a school for artisans conducted by her husband. When she works at the trade, which is whenever she needs a new hat or gown, she draws the prevailing wage, $10 a day and up.

Just now Mrs. Thompson is erecting the varicolored brick facade of her home in Long Island city. When that is done, she is going on another construction job for a short while in order to increase her variable. She does not lay brick steadily she says, "for I have my housework to do and baby to care for."

Sacramento Shops Will Be Enlarged
SAN FRANCISCO, May 13.—Bids calling for the construction an addition, 140 by 110 feet, to its Jeffrey shops at Sacramento were asked for today by the Western Pacific Railroad company. The addition, which will cost several thousand dollars and will be of steel and concrete construction, will be an extension of the machine and erecting shop.

The addition will call for a number of new mechanics and other workers, who will be added to the 450 now employed in the shops.

WOMAN ABOUT TO GAIN A DIVORCE SWITCHES PLEA

Judge Harris Now Pondering Whether to Allow Alimony Request.

Can a woman sue for divorce, appear in court and produce testimony sufficient to lead the judge to declare that she has made out a case, and then, at the last minute, change the nature of her suit from a divorce to an action for separate maintenance?

This is the question which Superior Judge T. W. Harris will be called upon to answer in the case of Christian S. Hansen, manager of the Petaluma branch of a large San Francisco poultry and feed concern, against Anna Hansen, Oakland resident.

Hansen sued his wife, alleging cruelty, and she replied with a cross complaint which was based on the same charges. The case was heard by Judge Harris yesterday and the court was about to announce its decision in favor of Mrs. Hansen when she startled attorneys and the judge by declaring that she had "changed her mind" and did not want a divorce but did want $250 a month for her separate maintenance.

Judge Harris continued the case until Friday to allow the attorneys to look up the legal point involved and see whether her request can be met.

During her testimony Mrs. Hansen named a Mrs. Warecott, Petaluma business woman, saying that Hansen neglected her and other members of his family for Mrs. Warecott.

One of the witnesses at the hearing yesterday was Merita Hansen, 13-year-old daughter of the Hansens, who testified that, on one occasion when she had cut her hand and was crying, her father became enraged and poured salt into the wound.

M'TEAGUE FILMED AT SHELL MOUND

Shell Mound Park and the first district Turn East of the Pacific branch of the American Gymnastic Union in more than a decade will be filmed by Erich von Stroheim next Sunday as part of the Goldwyn production of Frank Norris' "McTeague," which von Stroheim has been shooting in the bay region for the past two months.

Norris described a family picnic held by several of the principal characters of his story at Shell Mound Park. Von Stroheim, who is following the Norris story in detail, will film this episode of the picture while the local members of the American Gymnastic Union stage their field day.

The members of von Stroheim's cast who will appear at the recreation park next Sunday are Zasu Pitts, Gibson Gowland, Chester Conklin, Jena Horne and Sylvia Ashton. Frank Hayes, Eugene Mack, Fanny Midgley and Dale Fuller, the remaining principals, do not appear in this sequence.

During the following week, von Stroheim will film a second sequence of scenes in Oakland in the vicinity of Thirty-fourth street station of the Southern Pacific, where a house has been leased and altered to fit the needs of the story.

One of the witnesses at the hearing yesterday was Merita Hansen, 13-year-old daughter of the Hansens, who testified that, on one occasion when she had cut her hand and was crying, her father became enraged and poured salt into the wound.

More detail about your everyday use of rubber goods, and the three new basic developments announced by the United States Rubber Company

EVERY article of rubber manufacture starts with crude rubber. Hence the importance to everybody of getting this crude rubber pure and uniform from the very beginning.

About five years ago the rubber technicians of our Company set out to produce crude rubber purer and more uniform than any that had been known before.

Fortunately, they could start at the very source—the rubber trees on this Company's own plantations in the Far East. (See Note.)

They evolved Sprayed Rubber—the product of a wholly new rubber technique.

Sprayed Rubber—The First Uniformly Pure Rubber

Sprayed Rubber is the new scientific method of producing crude rubber from Rubber Latex, the milky liquid from a rubber tree.

Sprayed Rubber insures, for the first time since rubber was discovered, a pure and absolutely uniform product.

Heretofore all rubber has been coagulated by means of smoke or chemicals.

Rubber produced by heat and astringent smoke is contaminated with combustion products. Nor can there be any assurance of uniform quality.

When rubber is produced by treating latex with acetic acid it contains acid residues. Furthermore, the acid tends to destroy some of the valuable natural properties of the latex.

The new spraying process takes the latex—sprays it into a snow-white mist—and brings it into contact with pure super-heated air, driving out the water of the latex—and nothing else.

One Hundred Percent 'Pure Rubber At Last

Sprayed Rubber, as it comes out of the spraying chamber, is a mass of clinging snow-white flakes

Sprayed Rubber has greater strength—because it contains all the natural strength of the original latex unimpaired by chemicals or the destructive effect of machine working.

The New Web Cord

Between cotton cords and pure rubber latex there exists a natural affinity of the greatest importance to the cord tire manufacturer and the user of cord tires.

This is the basis of the second discovery—the new Web Cord.

Web Cord as you find it in a "U. S." Royal Cord Tire is prepared as follows:—

The tire cords are immersed in the latex. No chemical solutions of rubber are used.

The latex penetrates into, around and through the very center of the cord.

These impregnated cotton cords laid side by side form a rubber-webbed sheet—without cross tie-threads, as all other cord fabric has, and free from all other resists to flexure.

It is believed that tires made of Web Cord are the most homogeneous tires yet manufactured, and as a result the strongest, most elastic and longest wearing. Thousands of them are already in service.

The New Flat-Band Method of Building a Cord Tire

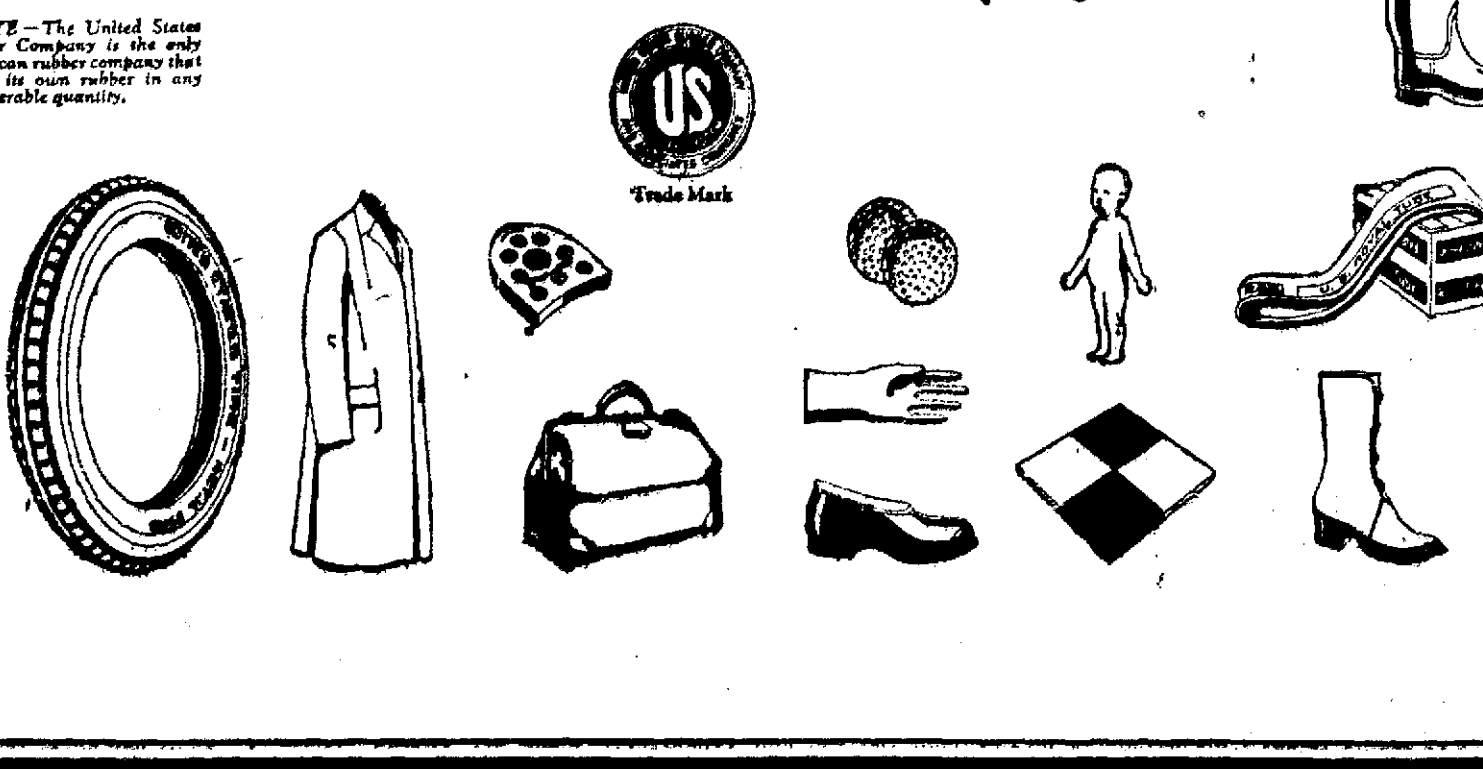

Royal Cord Tires today are built flat on a drum. Then when the tire is built complete—Web Cord plies and Sprayed Rubber tread—it is gently formed to tire shape by slight internal pressure, without any harsh treatment of the cords. And it is then vulcanized under pressure of a gas in contact with its inner surface, thus ensuring absolute uniformity of compaction in the tire walls.

During the forming process, each cord takes its normal position in the carcass, to sustain its full share of work.

A tire built in this way is positively balanced in structure and strength.

Each cord lying at precisely the same angle—is of precisely the same length.

All three of these new processes are the exclusive property of the United States Rubber Company—fully protected by patents in the United States and foreign countries.

NOTE—The United States Rubber Company is the only American rubber company that grows its own rubber in any considerable quantity.

PRINCE OF INDIA COMES TO MEET SCOTTISH MASONS

Shrimout Sampatrao Is More Like Business Man Than Barada Gaekwar.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Appearing more like an American business man than a prince of India, Prince Shrimout Sampatrao, brother of Maharajah Sampatrao, Gaekwar of Baroda, arrived on the liner Tabata late yesterday.

A graduate of Oxford and a ruler of more than a million subjects, Prince Shrimout is entirely democratic and has come to this country with the chief object of studying Scottish Rite Masonic work in Philadelphia during the conclave. He will later depart for a tour of Europe.

Though his family owns the "Star of the South," the seventh largest diamond in the world, as well as the finest collection of pearls and sapphires in existence, Prince Shrimout wore no jewelry except a small watch of ordinary value. He explained that his diamond-studded watch was broken and now in a repair shop in Australia.

The prince and his brother, now the Maharajah, visited this country ten years ago, and the latter was at that time reported as an ardent suitor of Alice Roosevelt.

Increased Turnover—its effect on business financing

SUCCESSFUL department stores have all learned this one valuable lesson in business financing: net profits increase in direct proportion to the number of times a year the working capital is turned over.

Now, suppose that a hardware merchant whose average turnover is three times a year buys carefully and at the right prices. Then by extra selling effort, he increases his turnover from three times a year to five times. His profit on the money invested would be increased without increasing the amount tied up in merchandise.

The business man who does not watch his rate of turnover soon finds all his money tied up in slow-moving merchandise. He is probably hard pressed for funds to meet his bills as they come due.

The merchant who, on the other hand, does watch the rate of turnover closely, keeps his money in actively moving merchandise and can have funds available to take advantage of all cash discounts, etc.

This is the seventh advertisement of a series. The eighth will appear in this paper a week from today. Watch for it!

The Credit Department of THE OAKLAND BANK is always ready to advise with business men relative to methods of increasing turnover. It is a phase of financial management that should be given more and more attention. An appointment should be made by telephone to avoid loss of time through waiting, as many are taking advantage of the services offered by this department.

Hears Traveler Talk On Oriental Affairs.

The Japanese empire's occupation of Korea and the alleged mistreatment and persecution of Koreans by Japanese rulers were characterized by Hal Boland, student of Oriental Affairs, who was two years in Japan, China and Korea, yesterday, in his address to members of the Kiwanis Club at luncheon at the Hotel Oakland.

The speaker declared that he had seen Korean girls lashed with whips by order of Japanese officials for expressing patriotic sentiments in public, and of the persecution of Koreans for adhering to the Christian faith.

"There are records to show," he said, "that in the days of Christ missionaries penetrated into this ancient empire and left teachings of Jesus there." Korean women, Boland said, are the most untiring and the most persistent in receiving the Japanese yoke.

Wives and daughters of members of the Kiwanis Club were guests at the luncheon yesterday, which was designated as ladies' shopping luncheon.

A jar of this delicious mayonnaise free

We are making this a special "get-acquainted" offer. It's good only this week. We don't want you to miss it, and you won't if you have ever tasted MacLaren's Mayonnaise.

If anything in this world is entitled to be called home-made, it's MacLaren's Mayonnaise Products. We take the same care in preparing our products as the housewife—pure oils, fresh eggs, spices and fresh fruit juices—and blend them into one smooth, creamy, delicious whole, no cooking, no flavoring, no preservatives. We follow the housewife's method exactly; except that we never have her "bad luck." Ours is the same every time. That's because we have so greatly improved her way of blending, and because we have brought measurement of portions to absolute accuracy.

It is of no use to make something new unless you make something better; we believe we have—decidedly better. But the first taste will tell you more about its goodness, freshness and purity than anything we can say. And if you don't rather have you judge it than to take our word for it—we might be prejudiced. We make it perfectly simple for you to test it. For if, in your estimation, it is not the best dressing you ever ate—bar none—it won't cost you a cent. That's a fair offer, isn't it? The proof of the pudding is in the eating!—that is the proof we offer.

Gum-Dipped Cords Gaining New Fame for Service

194% Sales Increase in Last Six Months
Shows Trend Toward Firestone

The public has emphatically spoken. The popular preference in all territories is unmistakably the Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord.

A standard of service has been set by these famous tires without parallel in the past. It has brought a sales increase of 194% for the past six months over the same period of a year ago—the greatest gain in all Firestone history.

The Firestone Gum-Dipped Cord is the mighty achievement which has enabled Firestone to break the tremendous record of past Firestone success.

The tire buying public has been aroused to the results in economical mileage of the Firestone process of double gum-dipping. The buying-swing toward Firestone shows how it has advanced the public's standard of tire value.

Ask owners about Firestone performance on their cars. Note the big taxicab fleets Firestone-equipped. Watch the new cars you see—just from the factories; Firestone Gum-Dipped Cords are seen everywhere in fast increasing numbers.

Get the maximum extra mileage that only the Firestone name assures you. Only by insisting on this name can you be sure of getting the genuine gum-dipped construction.

 RICHMOND, May 15.—Inspector E. V. Shirley of the Richmond police department, will represent his department at the convention of finger print experts in Long Beach this week. John W. Shirley of this city, a deputy in the sheriff's office also is in attendance.

To Address Elks
 RICHMOND, May 15.—Nelson G. Welburn, commander of Vallejo Post, American Legion, and city treasurer of Vallejo, will be the principal speaker at tonight's Elks when Mother's Night will be observed. A program of music will be given.

Plans are being perfected by the Elks for their annual picnic to be held in San Ramon valley on June 10, when they expect to entertain hundreds of Elks and their families. Assemblyman Tom Carlson will come down from Sacramento and preside as exalted ruler.

Student Driver Fined On Drinking Charge
 Pleading guilty to a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated, James Bush, a student, today was fined $500 and was given probation for 250 days, during which time he must pay the fine imposed by Superior Judge L. S. Church. Bush was arrested March 23, 1923, at the foot of Broadway after spectors at Seventh street and Broadway driving his car at the rate of sixty miles an hour, according to their testimony. When arraigned in the police court he pleaded for time in which to complete his final examinations at the university. Having passed these successfully he appeared today in the superior court for sentence.

DEVIL'S ST

A Story of the World-Wide Traffic in Narcotics

By George C. Henderson

"Sure, then, it's good for a bunch of jack," he said hastily, to conceal his confusion. "I'll peddle 'em for you."

"Let me think," she begged. "Let me think."

The fat man looked after her as she walked toward her stateroom. He pulled out his checkbook, shuffled about uncertainly and wrinkled his brow, puzzled.

"That's sure changed," he said to himself. "Wimmen is queer. She hates him but 'aint certain if she wants to give him the state or not. He makes her a dog and she paints his pitcher. An' the way she looks sometimes! I wake up nights seein' them eyes of her'n starin' right through me."

The girl sought out the millionaire in his stateroom, where he was packing his bag.

"I want to go ashore, Curt," she said. "I've got to get my feet on solid ground if it's only for a few hours."

"You're taking an awful chance," responded her husband. "Remember the authorities are still looking for you. And if you are arrested you must go back to Oakland to stand trial. You may have forgotten, my dear, but the law has not."

But Eleanor May was obdurate. She wanted to get ashore, she said, to walk up and down streets, to feel ground under her feet, to see people. She longed to pass by and look into shop windows. She desired to purchase something, even if it was worthless.

"No one will recognize me in this part of the way place," she argued. "They need not know I'm from the typhoon. You can send me ashore in a different boat and I can even put up at a hotel."

"Women! You can't travel around alone in this country," said Dall. "It is impossible."

"But Mr. Bobbit will go with me. Mr. Bobbit is none too safe from the authorities himself," he reminded her. Suddenly Eleanor May burst out laughing.

"We are a fitting trio, Curt," she said. "I, a fugitive wanted for murder, Bobbit, an escaped convict, and you—"

"Don't talk like that!" cried Dall, hastily. "Here is Chub now. We will see what he says."

The fat man made no objections to taking her in his car. He felt confident that his fame had not spread to Hongkong and he was willing to play the big brother to Mrs. Dall. The millionaire supplied her lavishly with funds and she and Chub embarked for a steamer, while Dall and Eleanor May took the ship's cutter.

Never had Eleanor seen so many queer craft. They swarmed in the water like bees, with children playing on the decks, the women working and the men smoking or fishing. They crowded about incoming liners and around cargo carriers selling fruits, pigs, cabbages and other Oriental products.

At first she did not feel the oppressive heat, she was so excited. But as the jinx-like whistles whirled through the narrow, cluttered streets the milling crowds and the breathless stillness of the sultry air united to contribute to her discomfort.

Chub, despondent for once in his good natured life, tagged along with her into one of the big stores where she made her purchases of souvenirs, clothing and things she did not need. The fat man secured a porter to carry her purchases to the hotel.

Then he accompanied her to the Victoria, where she retained a suite of rooms and then departed on some defined mission of his own with the statement that he would meet her in the lobby in a couple of hours.

Eleanor reveled in the comforts of a first class hotel for two precious hours. She had her hair dressed, nails manicured, her new clothes fitted on and she forgot for the moment that she was an unforgotten pawn of fate, almost friendless in a strange land facing arrest and imprisonment on one hand and life with a man she despised on the other.

She was startled out of her calm when a Canongese servant announced a visitor.

"A gentleman to see you," said the yellow-skinned man.

She pulled her gown away from the manufacturer and walked over to the Oriental.

"Did he send no card?" she queried. "Who could he be calling on her? No one knows of her presence at the Victoria except Bobbit and he would not try to reach her in this manner."

"No, my lady."

"What was he look like? Is he English?"

"Looks English but I don't think so."

The girl flattered to the table on which she had placed a new hat. Her first impulse was to see. Perhaps it was a detective. The thought caused her to show a burst of speed, she paid the astounded manufacturer, who had not finished her task, donned her hat and leaving most of her purchases on the table, hurried toward the exit where the servant still stood.

"I am not in," she told the amazed attendant. "Do you understand? Tell him I am out. How can I leave without meeting him?"

The servant, smiling, indicated a stairway.

"This is the garden," he said, edging toward her. Eleanor looked up at him startled, and then she read the avarice in his eyes. He meant her no harm. Merely he desired a tip.

She gave him a gold piece and fled down the stairs before the fellow could recover from the shock of receiving so much money.

What a narrow squeak! Undoubtedly the police would have been waiting for her. She could not wait for Chub. He would return to the typhoon when the hotel people informed him that she had gone.

She looked about her in bewilderment. She was lost. She did not know which way to turn. A jinx-like shudder stopped at her hall.

"Where go?" demanded the coolie.

Eleanor could not tell him. She did not know at which wharf she could get a sampán to carry her out to the typhoon.

"Tryn' to make a sneak," he shrieked in a familiar voice. It was Bobbit.

The fat man visibly was excited. His plump cheeks were bathed in perspiration.

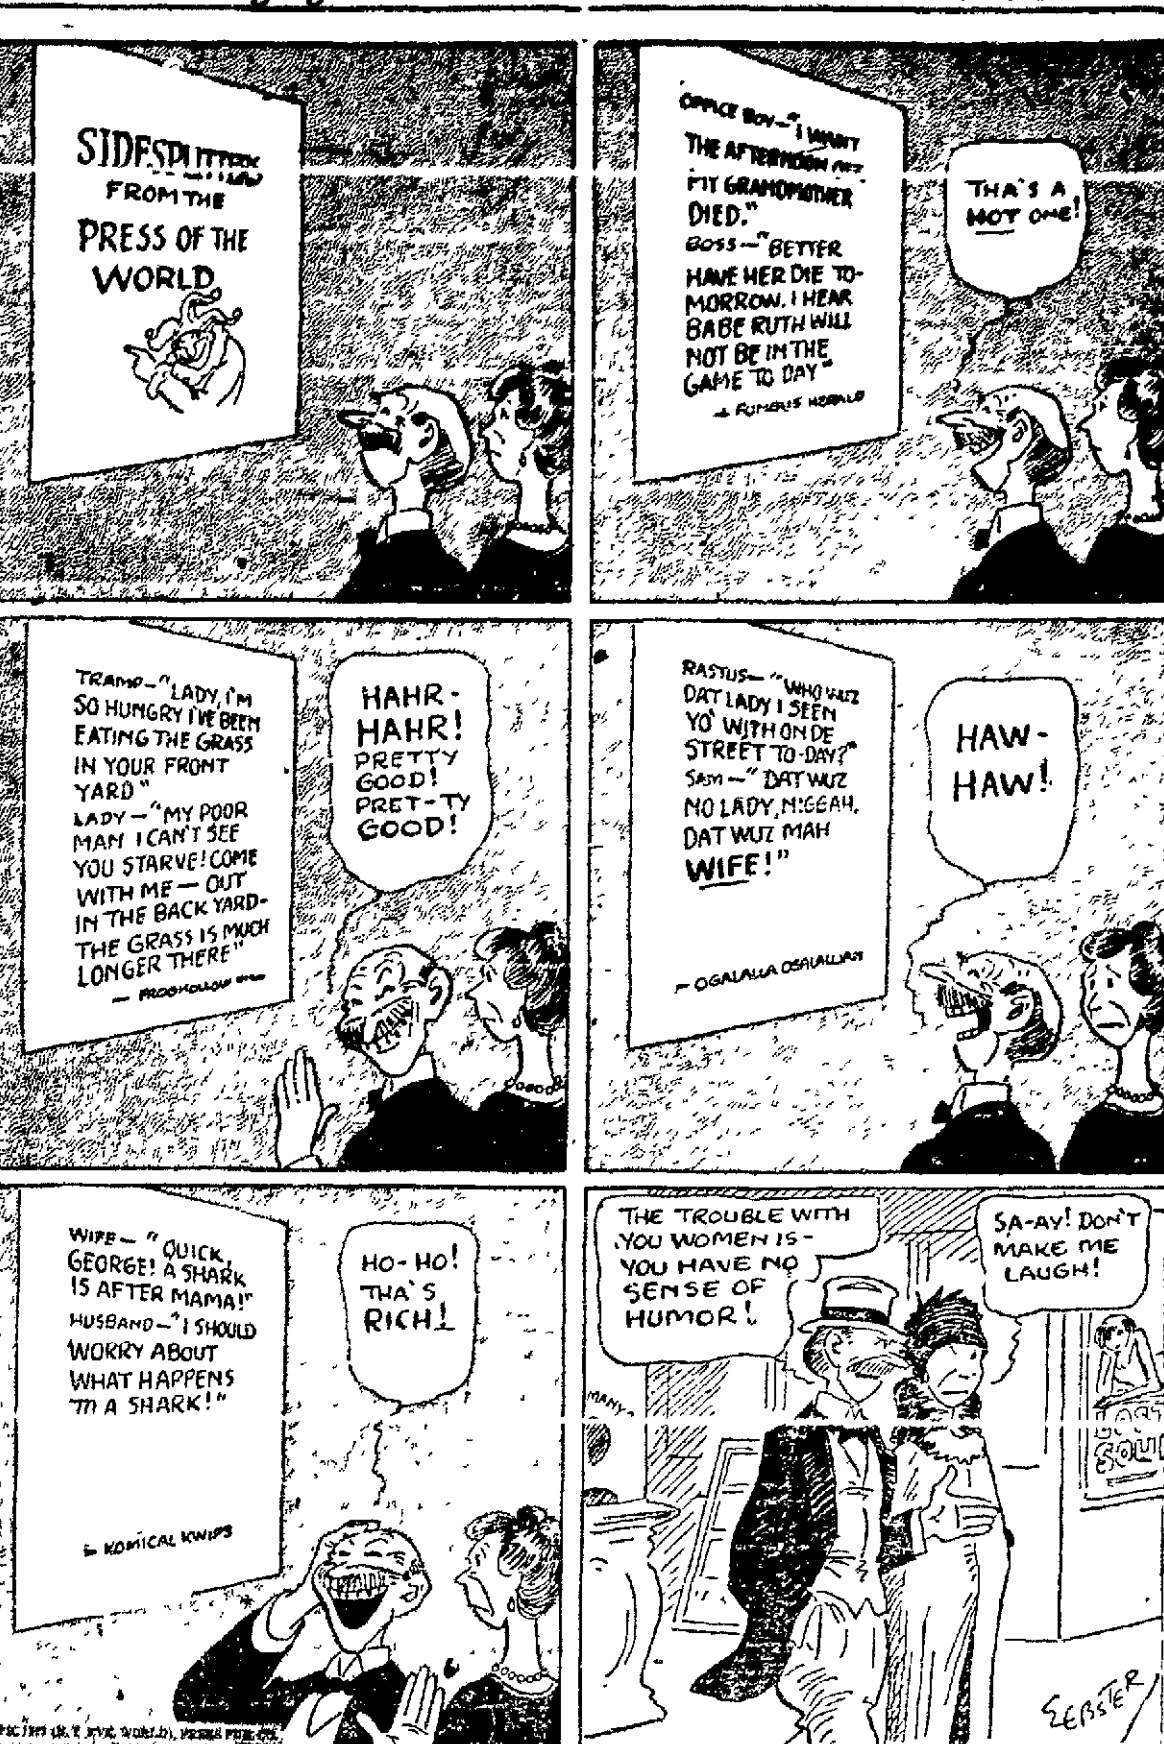

A Jap liner leaves for America in an hour, he cried. "I fixed it. You can trade the big spark for a cabin. It's your chance for a getaway. Climb into this baby buggy."

he commanded, indicating the jinx-like "buggy" mounted on wheels.

Eleanor hesitated. She could sail under an assumed name. Freedom from the man who had wrecked her life, lay ahead of her. A few days' travel and she could be home.

It's Discouraging to a Husband with a Keen Sense of Humor

My Marriage Problems

WHAT THE REMOVAL OF THE BANDAGE DISCLOSED.

Allen Drake's proposal to unpeel the bandage from Smith's head apparently was the proverbial last straw upon the man's already heavy burden of terror.

As my father, at Mr. Drake's request, removed to the lounge, side and put out his hand to the bandage, Smith lunged his bound figure forward in an attempt to use it in battering-ram fashion.

But the government agent was quicker than he, and though weakened by his long illness he had the advantage of free hands and an upright position. Therefore it was but the work of an instant to press the frantic man back into his chair and hold him there while my father, standing behind him, worked deftly at the soiled bandage which Smith had worn ever since he had arrived at the Briggs farm disguised as a farm laborer.

"Now, Mrs. Underwood," Lillian's hand upon my arm urged me forward to a vantage point where I could distinctly see every movement of my father's hands. And when the outer in-describably soiled bandage had been unpeeled, and there appeared heavy folds of the finest and most immaculate linen imaginable, Lillian and I looked at each other significantly. We had anticipated cleanliness and daintiness—undoubtedly apparently filthy bandage, and we were not disappointed.

My father began to unfold the inner bandages, and found them intricate, and frequently fastened. Smith made no movement to hinder him, evidently yielding passively and stoically to the pressure his shoulders. But when the last bandage had been unfastened, revealing no injury whatever to the head beneath, Smith suddenly ducked his head into his shoulder as far as he could in a last effort to hide his face.

"Nothing doing in the ostrich line," old dear, Allen Drake drawled, with a single deft movement he tilted the other man's head upward until his face was fully illuminated by the light.

"Now, Mrs. Underwood," he said. "BUT AFTER THAT?"

Lillian drew me nearer, then bent over the man's face, examining it minutely, comparing it with a written paper which she held in her hand, and finally tracing with her forefinger the peculiar eye-brows of Smith which I had noticed when I had seen him in the restaurant near the reservoir. Then they had been plucked in the silly fashion which women affected at that time, and the traces of the treatment still remained. But either the man had relied upon his bandage as a disguise or was unable to treat them as he had. For in one place above his right eyebrow there was this beginning of a tiny tuft of snow-white hair in bizarre contrast to the raven blackness of the rest of his brows.

"Ah!" Lillian drew a long breath as her finger rested upon it. "The tufted eyebrows of the family." The name is one known to every student of European royal families.

"You see, Made?" Allen? Mr. Spencer? This clinches the thing!" she exclaimed. "You are —"

She gave a name which startled me as prepared as I had been by her hints.

In the face of absolute defeat the man Smith seemed to regain the stoical poise which had been badly shattered while he had been frantically trying to avert discovery. And there was something abnormally royal in the manner he opposed to Lillian's cry of triumph.

"Yes, I am, he said slowly, "and if there is any over Niagara Falls an like you would be whipped through the market-places at my bare word."

"But you do not happen to be in your own place, fortunately for us," Lillian replied lightly and then she turned to Allen Drake.

"What shall be done with him, Allen?" she asked in exactly the indifferent, contemptuous tone which she would have employed in speaking of a chicken thief.

"I'm sure up for the night in some kennel where he can ruminate over his former exalted position," he replied and there was something about the colloquy which told me that it had been rehearsed beforehand and that it was purposely calculated to enrage and humiliate the bound man.

"But after that?"

"What do you think?" he countered.

Lillian's eyes were fixed upon Smith's stoical face.

"There is but one safe thing," she said, "and that is to send him back to his own exalted place. They her hand, and finally tracing with her forefinger the peculiar eye-brows of Smith which I had noticed when I had seen him in the restaurant near the reservoir. "What do you think?" he countered.

Lillian's eyes were fixed upon Smith's stoical face.

"There is but one safe thing," she said, "and that is to send him back to his own exalted place. They her hand, and finally tracing with her forefinger the peculiar eye-brows of Smith which I had noticed when I had seen him in the restaurant near the reservoir. Then they had been plucked in the silly fashion which women affected at that time, and the traces of the treatment still remained. But either the man had relied upon his bandage as a disguise or was unable to treat them as he had. For in one place above his right eyebrow there was this beginning of a tiny tuft of snow-white hair in bizarre contrast to the raven blackness of the rest of his brows.

"Ah!" Lillian drew a long breath as her finger rested upon it. "The tufted eyebrows of the family." The name is one known to every student of European royal families.

"You see, Made?" Allen? Mr. Spencer? This clinches the thing!" she exclaimed. "You are —"

She gave a name which startled me as prepared as I had been by her hints.

In the face of absolute defeat the man Smith seemed to regain the stoical poise which had been badly shattered while he had been frantically trying to avert discovery. And there was something abnormally royal in the manner he opposed to Lillian's cry of triumph.

"Yes, I am, he said slowly, "and if there is any over Niagara Falls an like you would be whipped through the market-places at my bare word."

"But you do not happen to be in your own place, fortunately for us," Lillian replied lightly and then she turned to Allen Drake.

"What shall be done with him, Allen?" she asked in exactly the indifferent, contemptuous tone which she would have employed in speaking of a chicken thief.

"I'm sure up for the night in some kennel where he can ruminate over his former exalted position," he replied and there was something about the colloquy which told me that it had been rehearsed beforehand and that it was purposely calculated to enrage and humiliate the bound man.

"But after that?"

"What do you think?" he countered.

YOU CANNOT TELL A GENIUS BY HIS DECKLE EDGE.

I HAVE two friends, both artists. Both have studios. The studio of the first friend is a gorgeous haunt. Chinn, India and Persia have covered the floors with rainbow rugs. The windows are shrouded in Egyptian prints. The lavender and lemon walls are lined with pictures. Always the studio is full with lantern light. The second friend's studio is a simple, clean, light of day, my friend explains. It is the delicate coordination of my mood.

For the same reason she cannot breathe regular air. A mist of Oriental incense fills the room by day or night. Through it the colors swim in blurs of heliotrane, old green, dull gold and Chinese red. Through it my friend slips clad in wondrous trousseaued suits, heavy with embroidery of gilt and silk, and buttons of clear jade. Your senses swim in a sea of light. Your soul begins to pant with eagerness to build some beauty there. You pant. And pant. And pant. And then—it's time to eat. The studio of my other friend is businesslike and efficient. There is a huge, shabby desk, some comfortable old chairs, bare windows open to the sun and air, a long array of files and well-worn books. The first friend doesn't work enough to keep her pet canary and in need. The second friend builds fairylands from words and moves the souls of men ten thousand miles away.

That's life, folks. It's never safe to judge a genius by his deckle edge. The folks who really count, who set the records and produce the goods, have seldom time for stage effects. They park their temperaments outside the door, roll up their shirt sleeves and sail in. The greatest business men do not announce themselves with bands, nor telephone a dozen times before they get to work. The greatest artists do not waste good time in trying to "co-ordinate a mood." They work. Whenever you see floppy ties and rolling eyes, or temperamental somersaults or studio interiors coiled up like auction rooms, look out! As sure as shooting, some one else has paid the rent.

"After marriage she was either away visiting relatives or had them visiting us and then the baby came, at the end of the first year. Instead of being a help, the wife was a hindrance—never satisfied, not even with the town, and I found myself unable to keep up my strength and my job, so quit and took an easier job at less pay, which I now hold at $2 a day."

"She is not satisfied yet, probably never will be, but the thing that sticks in my craw is the raising of the children. They run her, body, soul and breeches. She never corrects them except in a fit of temper, which is one of the foulest things to do, in my opinion. Like most women, when she lets the child wear her nerves down to a dancer point, she gets angry and beats up on the kid with no explanation, salting on indiscriminately."

"When I find it necessary to correct a child, and I probably am a bit over-strict myself. I handle each case as it comes along and try to make it as simple as possible. They mind me well and love me, both hers and mine, but lately they are starting in to turn—that is, here and there, and I find the reason to be that if they do any mischief, she will scold them. Just you wait until our baby sees that."

"When he comes home and I tell him, and a lot of that boogie in his varied forms causes ill will or should. I do not punish except for defiant disobedience, lying or some vice not just children's fun."

"I've had my tools lost, broken or abused, but don't complain if they try to make and not destroy something."

"Things are not getting better fast. What would you do? I've put it up to the Mrs. a lot but get no satisfaction. Resp. DAD."

"I'm not going to let you answer that letter, Dad. It's a fine one, full of constructive thinking, and I'd like you to interpret that thinking for yourself. What should be done about that man with 17,000 idle acres?"

"Without an education and lack of training it's hard to express one's thoughts."

"In regard to some of the knocks and slams we hear and read so much about, about the new generation, how do you think it would work if some boosting was done instead? Suppose, in regard to the young men who hang around the pool halls, and from there to worse, some place could be established where games could be played and run on a different method. Show me a place in any city where a young man, especially a stranger, can go, except to a pool hall or a dance hall or a saloon. Why couldn't different things be set before them, for amusement?"

"It would be an easy matter to handle, if all those that knocked would boost in a certain way. A piece of land and it was his, or buy it for little or nothing. That's how the now-wealthy farmers got their start. Who couldn't get a start on their terms. Now let's young couple try to get a small thing going."

"Nothing is impossible, but try that. Here is a fact. In Glenn county, there's one man who owns 17,000 acres of A-1 hill land. He'll raise grain or hay or on about 15,000 acres and 2000 acres pasture for sheep."

"Now many young couples could nestle down on this one ranch and be happy, instead of living off a job in the city? Is Mr. Man producing anything on this ranch? Not on thousands of what it could produce. He lives in a tumble down shack. Has an old Ford and not even a wife."

ELECTRIC LITE.

Edison sat in his laboratory. And thawt and thawt and thawt. "This is a pretty good world after all," he said.

"But there aint as mutch lite as there awt."

"There's as mutch lite as there ever was."

A friend of his replied, "So as long as everybody's happy. Why should you be unsatisfied?"

Some other folks was there at the time.

"How about candles and lamps?" said one.

"That's plenty for the nite time. And in the day wats a matter with the sun?"

"There's as mutch lite for you as for anybody else. You'll haff to admit that, wont you?"

And if you think you cant see good enuff. Jest turn up the gas wv dont you?"

But Edison thawt and thawt and thawt. Till he thawt of the electric lite. And the world may not be any better now. But it certy is more brite.

BRAIN
TESTS

7 Minutes to Answer This. Father trains his Thanksgiving turkey in a rectangular field, and I want to tell you of the speed he showed last season when he started to capture it. The anxious bird was watching operations from under that tree in the corner. When Father entered the gate at the right-hand corner from his quarry, off went the turkey in a straight line close to the fence, aiming for an open gate diagonally opposite the one his pursuer entered. Father, too, made a bee-line for the same corner, and it was a pretty race for that open gate. The bird, by his tail fence, which were clutched just as he reached the gate. We figured out that Father's speed averaged ten feet to the bird's eight, and from that data I want to say if you can tell the width of that rectangular field, which contains 100 times as many square feet as the number of running feet in the surrounding fence. Answer Monday.

Answer to Yesterday's. The name WORDSWORTH.

ABOUT WOMEN

Fort Leavenworth, Kan., has the only organization affiliated with the General Federation of Women's Clubs composed exclusively of the wives and daughters of army officers.

Queen Mary of England recently displayed her sympathy with the poorer women by making a tour of the working class district and chatting with the women at the wash tubs.

Misao Yamamura, a 16-year-old student at the Savage school in New York city, recently won the club swinging title in the first Amateur Athletic Union gymnastic championship for women.

Wouldn't they regard these terms of wifehood with more satisfaction than if they married a man with a job in town? I think that would be better rid of them both?

"Is not the old generation to blame for conditions existing amongst the young people of this generation? It works right back every time. How about a comparison between a burglar and our holdup man, compared with our modern business man. The burglar and the holdup man takes his from the well-to-do generally at the point of a gun. The business man takes his from the workers. Before a working man gets his food and clothes for his family, two or three Mr. Doughs get a big whack at his purse, holds him up all be can. Nobody can come back at him for robbing the producers of their daily bread and food. But Mr. Holdup man takes his in a more many way and gets life on the rock pile if he's caught. Mr. Dough keeps on robbing the public. Now turns a hand to toll and lives in luxury and hops around in a country club ground after a rubber ball and rides in limousines. Shouldn't they both get the rock pile? Wouldn't it be better rid of them both?"

"How about Mr. Business man who gets ahead in the world by having a bunch of girls at a non-living wage scale, or has children working for his profits. Those who will find are the wealthiest and so-called self-righteous and most prominent citizens. I will admit we need progressive business men, but not progressive to such a burdensome extent and selfish purposes. "Och more I'll say that if all the knockers would appeal to reason and boost instead of knock, this could be made into some world. BE A BOOSTER."

End.

The Family Car

The car— That I brought home last week— Was just the ordinary kind— In fact it was a Lizzie— But as I rolled up with a grin— My family stood out at the gate— And welcomed me with loud applause— My wife viewed it with lighted eyes— And said it was the proper size— It pleased her beyond measure— My daughter said in scornful voice— "It's plain to see that's no Rolls-Royce— But still 'twill give us pleasure— My boy asked me with meaning grin— What number won that bunch of tin— Get in—get in—I shouted— For their remarks had made me sore— I guess I swore—a little— Now let me see—I'll pull on this— And then I'll twist on that a bit— Look out—hold on—away she goes— Now mother, do not have a fit— I know just what I'm doing— Don't get excited—I'll drive slow— For if I choosed to let her go— I'd leave the world behind me— Now Jim, don't tell me where to go— I know—I know— This road leads right on up the hill— Down past the mill— It don't? Who says it don't?— Why, certainly it does—my dear— Don't fear— I know just where I'm going— Now Jim, please don't give me advice— I've told you twice— To keep your hands off that wheel— Oh ma—don't squeal— I didn't mean to hit it— But that darned post stood out too far— A little jar—won't hurt you— Of course there's nothing rattling loose— Don't be a goose— Now Clara, please do shut your mouth— We're going south— Whose going east—you're full of prunes— You kids are like a pair of loons— I'm wise to my direction— I do not care for foolish kids— To give me correction— Gee whizz—this sand is getting deep— I'll stop right here and take a peep— To where this road is winding— Yes, yes—I'm right—Now Jim, don't blow— Quit hollering—Dad, I told you so— Be patient for a little while— It's just a mile— And then we'll be in clover— Come, Lizzie girl—come have a heart— The sand is too darned deep to start— Grinrrrr—grump—grinrrrr—grump— Of all the luck—we're stuck.

CLARICE PATTERNS

Practical Rompers for Improper Little People
(No. 1737)

For little folk's play hours, a romper like this will keep them clean and they'll be comfy in them besides. The pattern can be had in sizes 2, 4 and 6 years and only 1½ yard 36-inch material is required to make them.

The garment is so easy to make that two or three could be "run up" of an afternoon and each would cost very little more than a quarter. Price 15 cents, stamps or coin.

Gingham, percale, chambray or linene are excellent materials to select for play garments of this type for they can stand to be boiled until clean.

Uncle Wiggily
Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE ANT LADY.

"How do you think I look, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Nurse Jane Furry Wuzzy one morning, as she skipped into the room where the bunny rabbit gentleman was reading his after-breakfast paper.

She and the rabbit uncle started off.

It rather nifts," spoke Mr. Longears, speeding in a tree and easy sort of way.

"Nifty? Come, that isn't saying much," laughed the muskrat lady housekeeper, "but I'm glad you like it when you go adventuring."

"Yes," answered Uncle Wiggily, "but adventuring is tough work, sometimes, and it you wear your new hat!"

"Oh, I'm not going all the way adventuring with you," spoke Nurse Jane, "I'm only going as far as Mrs. Twinstail's house. She and I are going to the movie. The lady pig has a new hat also."

"Goodness, said I hope it doesn't rain!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily, looking out at the sky.

"Oh, it won't rain," declared Nurse Jane, "I'm not even going to take an umbrella."

"And as I am wearing my old hat I won't take an umbrella either," said the bunny gentleman, "Rain can't hurt me, though I may spoil your new bonnet, Nurse Jane."

"Oh, it won't rain," Miss Furry Wuzzy said. So she and the rabbit uncle started off, he to go adventuring and she to call for Mrs. Twinstail's hat.

Uncle Wiggily and Nurse Jane had not hopped for through the woods before, all of a sudden, the rabbit gentleman stopped short. He leaned over and said:

"Please stop me to help you. That is too heavy a load for you to carry. I'll help you."

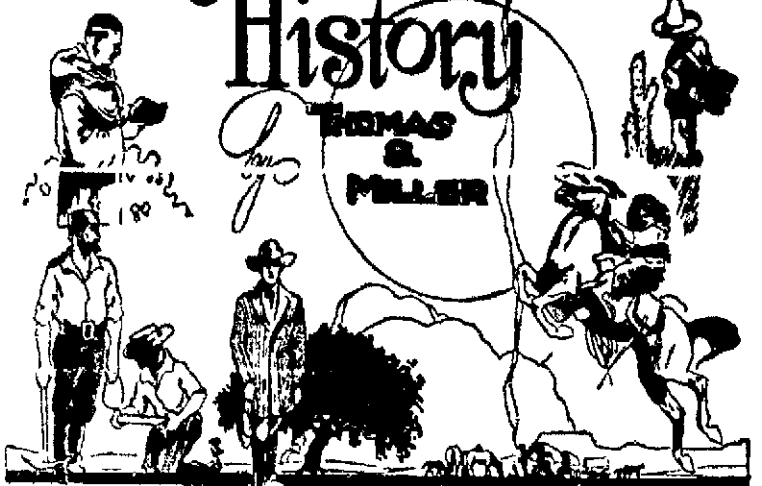

"To whom in the world are you talking?" asked Nurse Jane, for she saw no one.

"I was talking to a little red ant lady," said the bunny gentleman. "There she is, trying to crawl along the ground carrying a leaf five times as large as herself. Wait a minute, red ant lady, and I'll help you. The lady pig's foot has stepped on her, and she is trying to dig her way out from under it. I'll help you."

"Thank you—that was very kind of you," said the red ant lady, "I expected some of my brothers and sisters to help me carry this leaf home, but they are so busy elsewhere, bringing in things to eat before the autumn, that I had to do this myself."

"I'm glad I could help," spoke Uncle Wiggily, as he and Nurse Jane walked on.

Today In California History

MAY 15
The Superintendent Disobeys Orders.

A FABULOUS day, this May 15, 1910, in the story of petroleum in California. A star day in a story that began in 1859, when the oil excitement of the east spread to California. The gold era was passing, and as it passed, the oil excitement of the west began. The vision of men as the new dream of Alhambra. In 1865 there were already 65 companies with a nominal capital of $45,000,000. Shares sold as high as $15,000 a single share.

The romance of gushers displaced that of nuggets. Men became millionaires in a day, others went bankrupt.

This day, May 15, 1910, men are drilling a well in the Mariposa field. Drilling, drilling, drilling. Drilling for wages; without hope. A discouraged superintendent to stop work several days ago. But he is one of those who won't, who can't stop; has come too far to stop. "Keep the work going, boys," as long as there is money to pay wages he is not going to heed the order of the directors. Somehow or other he has faith.

In that well. A gambler's desperate hope. So the monotonous drilling goes on.

Of a sudden a baller, weighing half a ton, is shot out of the well and embedded in the derrick. With a roar heard a mile away, oil, rock, gas, sand and the bones of prehistoric animals shoot in a column three hundred feet high in the air. Oil flowing everywhere; flowing like water. Men yelling, embracing, dancing; wild men come crazy. But the oil must be controlled. But the best that can be done is to let the oil rivers follow natural channels and collect it in a sump, hold it there with dams, till pumps are erected and a pipeline run to Port Harford, to hastily erected concrete tanks. Hardly erected. A tank bursts; 500,000 barrels of oil irretrievably lost. But what are 500,000 barrels to the Lakeview gusher, which flows two weeks as high sometimes as 50,000 barrels a day. Oil! California has passed the pastoral, mine and agriculture phases to that of industry, in which oil is an important factor.

But what if the superintendent had not disobeyed orders?

It was no wonder the fat man with the long bang gun ran when the Wiggynooop and the Snoopywiggy ran out in front of him and howled, for the Snoopywiggy and the Wiggynooop were queer looking creatures.

And say! How they can howl when they want to. Of course the Wiggynooop and the Snoopywiggy mixed laughing into their howls, for the fat man was so surprised and frightened when he saw the two strange creatures jump out in front of him. He rolled over and over many times before he got upon his feet and started to run.

It saved him right! All the little woodland creatures said when the Wiggynooop and the Snoopywiggy had frightened the fat man with the bang gun.

"Cause why? Cause! That fat man was in the deep, deep woods over so often and when his gun goes 'Bang!' then nearly some little woodland creature gets hurt!"

"I do not see why some men like to do that," Raggedy Ann said. "Neither do I," Grinny Bear said. "But they do."

"Every one with a bang gun that we see in the deep, deep woods, we will jump out and howl at them. We'll Wiggynooop!" the Snoopywiggy asked.

"Indeed we will!" the Wiggynooop replied. "I'll bet, if the Snoopywiggy and I had not been laughing so hard, we would have frightened him more than we did, for we are a howl over so much louder if we wish."

"Maybe sometime we will ask you to howl real loud for us," Raggedy Ann laughed, for the Wiggynooop acted as if he wished to howl to show how loud he could howl. "But please do not howl now, because all the little woodland creatures are having so much fun watching them."

All right," the Wiggynooop agreed. "We won't howl now!" Just then Freddy Fox, who had run away when the fat man had shot the bang gun before, came running back to the strawberry flavored spring as fast as he could. Freddy Fox was almost out of breath, but he said, "Do you know what, Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy?"

"What is it?" the Raggedy

"Why," said Freddy Fox, "I was asleep under a log when I was awakened by voices, and it was the fat man and another fat man, and they said they were coming here to get the fat man's bang gun. You'd all better run!"

"All right," the Wiggynooop agreed. "We won't howl now!" Grist from the Sport Mill

Jack Reeves is going to have a test of his advantage over Bert Collins when the pair step into the ring at the Auditorium tomorrow night. The boys are as scared about their weight as a prima donna is about her age, but competent judges like Tommy Simpson and Lou Bernstein declare Reeves will weigh fully ten pounds more than the southern middleweight. The Collins adherents admit this is quite a handicap for their man but they argue that Bert's cleverness will more than offset the extra poundage carried by the San Francisco boy. Collins gave a marvelous exhibition of boxing and footwork last week when he defeated Billy Shady and if he can keep away from Reeves tomorrow night his footwork might carry him to victory. Reeves can fight only one way and that is to come in and keep punching. Jack is always willing to take a punch in order to land one.

Teddy O'Hara Will Try a New Style

The fans who saw a bout with Teddy O'Hara tomorrow night at the Auditorium will be surprised to find that he is supposed to fight and not pose and he threatens to try out a new style on Louie Garcia. O'Hara has been a main event for so long that it was quite a shock to find him placed as far down in the fourth preliminary but Teddy admits he belongs there after his recent poor showings.

"I have found out that the fans want me to fight," said O'Hara the other day. "And that's what I am going to do in the future. It is a case of go or do or win me. I am either going to be a champion or I am going to be knocked for a good reason. There will be no more of this sort of thing. I will be the sort of thing doing."

Teddy O'Hara is the son of a boxer and he knows his business. Kicking him will be back in the good graces of the crowd and he will be at least a special center at the next show.

Simpson, Bernstein Ranch House Buys

Tommy Simpson and Lou Bernstein suffered a severe loss last night when their ranch house in Livermore burned down. One of the foundations are left today. The property was known as the McLeod vineyard and the house was one of the Livermore landmarks. Simpson, Bernstein, Al Wainwright and George Sawyer acquired the property four years ago and the boys have entertained there with some memorable parties. As soon as the fire started Simpson and Lou were on their way out before they reached the house. The place was completely destroyed. Some beautiful palm trees more than fifty years old and a big aviary also went up in smoke. Crossed wires are given as the cause of the fire.

Alhambra Hi Nine Defeats Crockett

MARTINIZ No. 15—Alhambra High School's baseball team proved to be a hot team in their first game of the season. They defeated Crockett in a game at the sugar town in which the locals emerged victors by a score of 13 to 5. The victory made four straight wins for the Alhambra boys. The game was called in the seventh inning when the Crockett boys willingly admitted defeat.

Baron of Alhambra was the star of the day, hammering out a home run, a three-bagger and a pair of two-baggers. The batmen for Martinez were: Patschinski, Greer, Hartz and Crow. The latter part of this week Alhambra plays the team of Riverside High of Antioch.

Kearns Wants to Save Jess For the Champ

Dempsey and Willis Likely to Tangle in Ring On Labor Day

By DAVIS J. WASH International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, May 15.—While cauliflower ears twitter about the engagement of the certified boxer, Willard and Firpo are scheduled to go into the ring for the purpose of sweeping up all the details of the proposed bout on June 10. The fight is supposed to be all set for the encounter except for the final arrangement of financial arrangements.

Meanwhile, Jack Kearns was busy in his office in New York. He has lined up the Polo Grounds, behind a proposal for Willard and Dempsey to meet here to a decision on a July 1 or early in August. In consideration of O'Rourke's good record in this regard, Kearns is inclined to believe that the proposed Dempsey-Kearns fight in the Polo Grounds is a possibility. Kearns is planning to put a new twist on the fight by having it a "no-holds-barred" affair. Yanks Keep Up Drive for 1923 Flag Appearance of French and Hollocher Pep Up Cubs and Dodgers.

CHICAGO, May 15.—The New York Yankees have gone after the two strongest teams of the American League in the west.

Taking yesterday's game from Detroit, 16 to 11, in a 12-inning marathon, the Yankees ran the spring of their invasion to four victories and one defeat—two of the wins over Cleveland and the one over Detroit. The Yankees have taken the other two games.

Washington's tough customer in the stadium, sided the Yanks last week, holding off the Tigers while the Yankees were triumphing. Cleveland was not so helpful while the Yanks were beating the Junco. The Yankees had an off day yesterday and the Senators' game was impeded by Cleveland's 6 to 0.

Strapping the White Sox to third place above the Tigers who occupied fourth place, the Yankees' victory was a boost to the club's hopes. The Yankees' victory was a boost to the club's hopes.

BOXING CHATTER

SEATTLE, Wash., May 15.—Bud Ruder, Seattle featherweight, was to begin training here today for a bout in Portland, May 21, with Danny Nunes or Joe Gorman for a diamond belt emblematic of the Pacific coast championship. Ruder returned here from California yesterday.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 15.—Vic Foley of Vancouver, B. C., champion of the Canadian bantamweight title and California Joe Layton are to meet in 10 rounds here tonight. The fight will be a featherweight bout. Foley has suffered but one defeat in his career to Danny Dillon of Minneapolis. Here recently, but the fans here are rated a bit higher than anyone Foley has yet met. Other bouts on the program are Stanley McInnes, Chicago featherweight, and George Burns of Portland. Sufor Renner and Pat Miller, Seattle, Green and Sailor May and Larry Young and Chuck Scott.

PITTSBURGH, May 15.—Heavyweight champion boxer was discharged from Mercy hospital late today and left immediately for New York City, where his manager, Jimmy McInnes, is waiting to meet him. McInnes is waiting to meet him.

CLEVELAND, O., May 15.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight boxing champion, will leave for New York Thursday to complete training for his bout with Eugene Dennis on June 10. He will be accompanied by three training partners.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 15.—Announcement is made by a local sports club that Louis Fapp, heavyweight boxer, has signed to fight here on June 10. The fight will be a heavyweight bout.

CHICAGO, May 15.—From a small town in the west, Chicago, a few miles from the city, a local sports club has signed to fight here on June 10. The fight will be a heavyweight bout.

Willie Ritchie To Challenge The Champion

WILLIE RITCHIE, former light-weight champion of the world, announced today he would make a "come back" in the pugilistic world and will shortly challenge Benny Leonard the title holder. Since his retirement from the ring nearly eight years ago, Ritchie has been in business in San Francisco. He is 32 years old.

Ritchie lost the light-weight championship to Freddie Welsh in a 20-round fight in London in July, 1911. He won the title in San Francisco in November 1912, by defeating Ad Wolgast. Ritchie came into fame prominence at Los Angeles in 1911 when, substituting for Wolgast, who was suddenly taken ill, he stayed through twenty rounds with Freddie Welsh, the English light-weight.

Bear Track Team On Way East for I.C.A.A.A. Meet

Coach Walter Christie and Manager Earl K. Kroeber of the University of California track team left here this morning in company with thirteen of their best stars for Franklin Field, Philadelphia, where they will take part in the I.C.A.A.A. track and field meet to be held at that place May 26.

Christie was confident that he has the right material with which to pile up thirty or thirty-five points and which he thinks will be more than enough to win the meet. The team has won the last two years. In 1921 they won with but 27 1/2 points.

The California Alumni at Philadelphia has arranged for a big banquet to be held after the meet in honor of Christie and his athletes.

2300 STUDENTS TO RECEIVE THEIR
DEGREES AT U. C.Commencement Ceremonies to Mark Retirement of Barrows as President

BERKELEY, May 15.—The University of California will turn out its record class of graduates tomorrow.

Approximately 2300 students will receive degrees from President David P. Barrows in the Greek Theater at the sixtieth annual commencement ceremonies which will begin at 10 o'clock. This is the largest number of students to be awarded degrees at one time from the state university.

The ceremonies will mark the farewell of President Barrows as head of the university which he has held for three years. On the stage with the retiring president will be his successor, Dr. W. W. Chubbuck, and his predecessor, President Emeritus Benjamin I. Wheeler. Traditional commencement ceremonies will mark tomorrow's program. The gates of the Greek Theater will be opened at 9:15 o'clock to holders of tickets, while at 9:45 o'clock all unclaimed seats will be thrown open to the public. Because of the many students receiving degrees only a limited number of tickets to the ceremonies was distributed to the public. Forty tickets being reserved for relatives and friends of graduates.

The customary academic procession and the parade of alumni carrying class banners will precede the opening of the program. Following the opening of the day will be Dr. Franklin Rhoda, one of the six surviving members of the class of 1873, all of whom will participate in the commencement program. Three student speakers will be heard. They are Allen Dempster, Arthur J. Smith and Ernest Young.

Following the commencement program the annual luncheon of the California Alumni Association will be held, the occasion this year to be in honor of Dr. Barrows and Prof. Charles Mills Gayley and Prof. William Carey Jones, the latter two resigning from the faculty after years of service.

This afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Barrows entertained members of the graduating class at a farewell reception held at the president's house on the campus.

Dead Flu Victims

SAN LEANDRO, May 15.—Every one of the five members of the El Cerezo Parlor Native Daughters here who has died since the parlor was organized will be honored by their death as the result of the "flu" epidemic which swept the world during the world war. Plans are being carried forward to honor their memories at a service to be held by the lodge one week from tonight. This will be followed by draping their graves with both the United States flag and the Bear banner on Memorial Day, May 30.

The five members in whose honor the parlor will hold special memorial services this year are Mrs. Frances Thiermy, Mrs. Virginia Foxworth, Mrs. Petronella De Mont, Mrs. Mae Peters and Mrs. Helen Goulard Silver.

NEW TENNIS COURTS READY.
RICHMOND, May 15.—City Engineer Harry D. Chapman has announced that the new tennis courts built by the city at Point Richmond are ready for use. The courts are modern and will be available to people on the West Side. The city already had courts near the city hall.

New Customers
For Utilities
Points Growth

THE rapid growth of the East-bay district is revealed in figures announced today by the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, which show an increase of 1092 customers in the company's East-bay division during the past month. Correspondingly, the company gained 2198 customers in this section during the first three months of the year, it was asserted. This increase places the Eastbay second, as to rate of growth, among the twelve divisions making up the territory served by the company. It is exceeded only by San Francisco, where an increase of 1124 customers was recorded for the month just ended, and 3519 for the first three months of 1923.

WOMEN'S SHRIEKS
BETRAY HOLDUPS

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—The screams of women passengers on a passing Union street car led to the capture early today of two alleged robbers after they had held up a man and a woman.

Gunner Williams, a sergeant in Company B, Thirtieth infantry, at the Presidio, was taking Mrs. M. Trigone to her apartment at 541 Washington street when two robbers appeared and compelled them to throw up their hands. While the robbery was in progress a car passed and Motorman Walter Levee stopped. Conductor John J. Miller began ringing the bell to attract attention.

Mrs. J. Turner of 2245 Larkin street and Mrs. M. Cuneo of 628 Montgomery street, who were sitting near the conductor, started to scream. Three policemen, hearing the noise, responded and arrested Carl Bystedt and Ferdinand Tolleson, sailors on the schooner Koronet, and they were charged with robbery. They had obtained only 75 cents from Williams.

Y. M. C. A. Directors
View Camp Sites

RICHMOND, May 15.—Y. M. C. A. directors of Richmond went to the Russian River country and to Lake county Saturday where they inspected several sites that have been suggested as suitable for the summer camp for the boys. Selection will be announced soon by Secretary A. W. Mueller. All boys more than 12 years of age will be eligible.

What is said to be an ideal site was found six miles above Cloverdale, on the Russian River, and the Y. M. C. A. directors are negotiating with the owner for renting this spot.

Calaveras Society
Elects New Officers

STOCKTON, May 15.—John R. Williams has been elected president of the Calaveras Society. Other officers follow: J. B. Kennedy, first vice-president; Clara Cook, second vice-president; Teresa Coeneshull, secretary; Miss Laura J. Berry, re-elected treasurer for the ninth consecutive year. The organization plans a picnic at Oak Park, this city, May 27.

$11,160 DAMAGES ASKED.

NEW ELECTRICAL PLANT HERE WILL
BE INSPECTEDHigh Officials of General
Company to Be Guests at Luncheon

Following the luncheon to General Swaps, president of the General Electric Company, and G. E. Parsons, vice-president, to be given by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce at the Hotel Oakland tomorrow, the new plant of that company on East Fourteenth street will be thrown open for official inspection. Swaps, regarded as one of the foremost figures in the industrial world, has come to Oakland to take part in this event and to view the city with a view to further development.

The new General Electric factory, located at Fifty-fourth avenue and East Fourteenth street, is the second plant to be built by this company in Oakland. The first was the General Electric Company's Mazda plant on Sixteenth street. The capacity of this older plant has been advanced to 25,000,000 incandescent lamps a year and gives employment to 550 people.

This new plant cost over $200,000. Its yearly production value is a million and a quarter.

BOY ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

STOMACH UPSET

Get at the Real Cause—Take
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach trouble.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for cathartics.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, and are absorbed by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like, fast and 30c.—Advertisement

Women May Depend upon
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Minneapolis, Minn.—"I had heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that when I realized I needed to take something to relieve my pains and backache, and to help build me up I began to take that. I had been sick off and on for years and barely weighed a hundred pounds, but now I have had such good results that I am recommending the Vegetable Compound to every one."—Mrs. J. J. BIEBER, 3939 18th Ave. South, Minneapolis, Minn.

Finds a True Friend
"Every woman who values her health should be proud to have a true friend like the Vegetable Compound," says Mrs. W. E. Shaw, 3227 Walnut Street, Chicago, Illinois. "I had female weakness so badly that I could not stand on my feet. Half of my time was spent in bed and I had pains in my back which were unbearable. I tried everything I could think of to help myself, and when a friend advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I began taking it once I recommended it without hesitation."

Shadow of Arrest
On Bootleg Chief

SAN FRANCISCO, May 15.—Indictment of the "king of the bootleggers" was to be asked of the grand jury here today, according to an announcement by Prohibition Director Samuel Rutter. The decision to ask the indictment of the man who is alleged to have flooded California with Canadian liquor landed from ocean-going rum carriers was reached at a conference between Rutter and members of the staff of the U. S. district attorney's office.

The accused man is said to be under surveillance and to be easy of apprehension should indictments be returned.

Sopranoists Hold
Mothers' Day Fete

Mothers' Day was observed at the Monday luncheon of the Sopranoists club at Hotel Oakland yesterday, with more than thirty mothers the special guests of honor. Dr. Pauline Nussbamer, a director of the Business and Professional Women's club, was chairman of the day. Mrs. Nellie Drake, vice-president, presided at the opening session. The program was arranged by Mrs. William Jenkins.

William Edgar Johnson, a newcomer in the musical world of the Eastbay cities, was the guest artist. Mrs. Irma Randolph was soloist. Mrs. William Root assisted at the piano, and Mrs. Melina Bennett, 78 years old, was the reader of the hour.

Extra mileage
without Extra cost

Whatever your estimate of your car's mileage capacity, you can add to it if you follow the three important steps given below. It is the estimate of authorities that one-third more mileage may be expected when the crank case is properly cleaned and a perfected motor oil is used.

In choosing a motor oil, remember that service in the engine is the only conclusive test of lubricating value. This is the sole basis on which Cylcol Motor Oil was created and is sold.

Cylcol is perfected by the new Hexeon Process, used only by us. This process makes Cylcol free from destructive "sulpho" compounds. As a result Cylcol does not break down nor thin out rapidly under engine heat. It maintains an unbroken lubricating film between moving parts and protects your engine against serious damage and early depreciation.

Consult the Cylcol Recommendation Chart for the correct grade of Cylcol for your engine. Ask the dealer who sells Cylcol.

AUTOMOBILE

Three important steps in securing perfected lubrication

1. Clean the crank case every 500 to 1,000 miles and when changing from one brand of motor oil to another.
2. Flush the crank case only with fresh motor oil—never with kerosene or so-called "flushing" oils.
3. Lubricate with the correct grade of Cylcol—the perfected motor oil, as shown on the Cylcol Recommendation Chart.
